Remedies for Poison Ivy.

The American Botanist records that W. L. McAtee has collected a list of 244 alleged cures for "ivy" poisoning. Among the vegetable substances recommended to be taken internally are extracts or infusions of sweet fern, snake-root, pasque flower, aconite, spice bush, coffee, poison sumach (?), pipsissewa, yellow jastaine, belladonna and bryony. It is pointed out that "poison ivy" probably has a reputation for harmfulness all out of proportion to its abilities; a few people are rather severely poisoned by it, but the majority seem to be immune or nearly so. We should like to add that a great deal of supposed "ivy" poisoning may be due to other plants, since there are scores of plants that are capable of causing more or less severe dermatitis in susceptible people. Copious information on this subject was published in 1887 by Dr. J. C. White in his book "Dermatitis Venenata."

When Canada Became British.

The Treaty of Paris, concluded in 1763, ended the Seven Years' War between France and Britain for the New France of that day and the Canada of to-day. Following the defeat of Montcalm by Wolfe in 1759 and of Vaudreuil in 1760, the transfer of the country to Britain was made, and the Treaty of Paris is its official document.

Part of the Conditions.

Algy Hardup went to his employer and asked for a rise.
 Old Skinfint went off the deep-end with a mighty splash.
 "But," stammered Algy, "there is nothing unreasonable, sir, in my asking you for a rise. Don't you remember, sir, you promised me one after I had been with you a year?"
 "Yes," snapped the employer; "but don't you remember that I made this rise conditional on your giving satisfaction?"
 "Oh, dear! Haven't I satisfied you, sir?" asked Algy pitifully.
 "Satisfied me?" thundered old Skinfint. Do you think you are satisfying me when you ask me for a rise?"

Fairbanks-Morse "Z" Engine with Bosch Magneto

The Greatest Combination

WHEN the full meaning of this "Z" message is realized—mighty few farmers in this community will fail to at once call on us. This example of master engine-building—must be seen. Type and pictures can but suggest this value establishing achievement. This one possible betterment—Bosch high tension, oscillating magneto—completes a rare engine service, fully maintained by us in co-operation with a nearby Bosch service station
