PORTLAND DISASTER

No News Heard From Her to June 29

Nunivak Natives Assert They Saw Str. Jeannie Crushed in the Ice and Sink.

Captain Madmuist who arrived today in command of the N. C. steamer Leah brings the latest information concerning the ill-fated Portland and Jeannie which were caught in the pack ice while en route to Nome and carried, presumably, through the Bering straits, the last seen of the former being above the Big Diomedes island. While the Leah was lying at Tanana he received a wire from St. Michael under date of June 29 which stated that nothing further had been seen of the Portland and the worst was feared. Even though the vessel may eventually escape and return to Nome safe there is bound to be considerable suffering aboard on account of the shortage in the food and water supply that will inevitably occur. The United States revenue cutter Thetis and the N. C. ocean steamer Dora have gone in search of the missing steamer and will not return as long as there is the slightest vestige of hope in sight. Natives who arrived at Nome from Nunivak Island the latter part of June say that the Jeannie is lost, they having seen her go down. The Portland has a large number of passengers aboard, many of whom are prominent and wealthy miners returning north for the season.

Decoration of a Dog's Grave.

Of course it was a wicked thing to do for a man to decorate the grave of his dog on Decoration day but the sentiment was not necessarily bad; the mistake was in choosing the day and the manner. People who have dogs are the only ones who realize the affection they inspire. Old hunters love their dogs better than any other living creature. We laugh at the silliness of fashionable women petting their dogs but as a matter of fact we all do it. A dog is the best substitute ever invented for a baby. They are always loyal, always devoted and always ready to carry you. No matter how heavy matters your clothes may resolve themselves into the dog is with you to love you and stand by you. The world turns a cold shoulder but the dog sticks the closer. The love is unselfish as the dog sticks just as close is adversity as in prosperity. It was Madame Desbasi who said, "The more I see of men the better I love dogs."—Juneau Record-Miner.

"No," says the convict, "there's some things in the prayer book I can't believe, though I'd like to." "What, for instance?" inquired the prison visitor. "Well, for instance, where it says 'We are here today and gone tomorrow.'"—Philadelphia Press.

GINZBERGS MUST SETTLE

Eagle City, July 9.—The trial of Hamburger et al vs. the Ginzbergs came before the civil court here today. The following judgment was rendered:

"The court finds in favor of Hamburger, Schuman, McLennan McFeely Co., Yukon Telephone Syndicate, Orr & Tukey and the Canadian Bank of Commerce for the full amount of their various accounts." Goetzman, the photographer, was awarded $25, Pinkert $10. The account of Frank & Vescoe was held not due.

The court holds the defendants and the money which they have already deposited as bail, as security for the judgment. The defendants have sufficient money to pay everything.

CRIMINAL MATTERS

Binet Narrowly Escapes a Fine

Prior to proceeding with the Binet case, Martin Prestoa was brought up for arraignment on three charges, that of obtaining from Emil Johnson on or about the 30th of June at Bonanza a quantity of liquor, paying for the same with brass filings, passing said filings off as gold dust; on the same date he is alleged to have obtained from Eugene Jacquet a deal, to wit, beef steak and eggs, in the same manner; the remaining charge was of similar character, the charge being that he obtained from Wm. Borgeson liquor to the value of $15 and also $15 in currency, exchanging for such brass filings. Preston pleaded not guilty to each of the indictments and elected to be tried by a jury. He is the same man who figured in a laymen's quarrel No. 1 above on Bonanza a couple of months ago which resulted in a charge being laid of attempted sluce box robbery, which on trial was dismissed. Preston informed the court that he had no counsel and he desired three or four days in which to arrange his defense. The crown not objecting the case was continued until the August assizes. Bail for the accused was fixed at $400 personal and $200 each for two sureties in each of the three cases.

The Clarke trial follows that of Binet.

Home Strawberries. A Front street grocery house is exhibiting today a few boxes of home-grown strawberries which are the first ever produced here. The berries were grown at West Dawson and are large and firm, and by the few fortunate persons who have sampled them are pronounced of excellent flavor. The price asked for the berries is $2 per box.

The Way to Tell. A well known judge on a Virginia circuit was recently reminded very forcibly of his approaching baldness by one of his rural acquaintances. "Judge," drawled the farmer, "it won't be so very long 'fo' you'll hev to tie a string around yer head to tell how far up 'o' wash yer face."—Harper's Magazine.

A WRONG DIAGNOSIS. Is the direct cause of many a death, but simply because a doctor makes a mistake is no reason that you should do likewise. If you keep your system in proper order you will never need a doctor. A torpid liver is the direct cause of more complaints than any other part of the human anatomy. To keep this organ in a good, healthy condition you should always keep a good liver pill in the house to be taken when occasion require. Cribbs, the druggist, has a large stock on hand including Ayer's, Carter's, Pierce's, Beecham's, etc., just received, which he is offering at virtually outside prices—50 cents per box.
