CHURCH of England prayer and books at the Atwood Drug Store.
J. H. McBAIR took charge of a lesson in a very interesting manner the Methodist Young People's P. Meeting last Friday evening.

THE Stratford Herald intends building a three storey office on the Main square, adjoining Dr. A. E. Ahrens. P. P., place of business. THE B. pleased to learn of the Herald's success.

THE St. Marys Journal, of last week says:—THE BEE, the latest addition to the ranks of journalism in Perth (one of the spiciest newspapers in Western Ontario, and is a credit to Atwood where it is published.

Our old friend John Knox arrived home last week from an extended tour through the British isles and F. Mr. Knox is much improved in health and we think it would not be a too much of him to favor our readers with a letter in the near future.

KEEP COOL.—Wear wool next skin. Eat but little meat and no spicy or seasoned dishes. Milk preferable to tea or coffee. Do not work. Many an overtaxed brain nervous system at last succumbs to effect of overwork in summer. Use stimulants.

THE following is a school boy's position on an editor:—An editor is a mule whose business is to invest in newspaper. He writes editorials, sorts out poetry, inserts deaths and wedding out manuscripts, keeps a basket, blows up the "devil," steals, flits out other people's battles, sells his paper for a dollar a year, the promise of a load of cordwood in the winter.

ALL the Toronto papers, except perhaps the World, are constrained to admit that the Dominion Day carnival was a failure—a fizzle. The Queen City tries to grab too much, and occasionally gets "left." The failure of the carnival did not prevent the Mayor and Aldermen from indulging in a champagne guzzle and spread-eagle eloquence over the carnival (before they fully realized its failure). King Dodds and his puff-brothers must have since felt "cheap" over their self-glorification.

THE latest fashionable fad is reported from Yalesville, Pa. At a village improvement entertainment eleven young ladies impersonated slaves, and were put up at auction. They were draped in sheets so as to be unrecognizable, and brought from 40 to 95 cents each. That quotations ran so low is explained by the fact that it was incumbent upon each purchaser to buy his slave all the ice cream, cake and lemonade she demanded, and to escort her home after the entertainment.

BUSINESS is very quiet at present. See advt. of farm for sale in this issue.

Miss SNEEL, of Kimbarn, is visiting at the parsonage.

THE new school house is fast nearing completion. The brick work, with the exception of the tower, is completed. A new teacher has been engaged to assist Mr. Harding in the person of Miss Ayers.

THE village pathmaster made his annual calls the other day and as a consequence preachers, teachers, storekeepers, etc., had to either shoulder the shovel and pick-axe and do their statute labor or whack the equivalent—money. A good many preferred the latter.

THE following item of interest to our readers appeared in the Rockwood correspondence to the Acton Free Press:—Rev. Mr. Harvey, the popular young Methodist minister preaches next Sunday evening to the Rockwood lodge A. O. U. W. This will be the last opportunity Rockwood people will have of the unfavorable weather. The grounds were illuminated with Chinese lanterns and everything tastefully arranged for the occasion. In addition to the excellent music furnished by the Band a short program was carried out consisting of a piece of instrumental music by Mrs. D. Rogers, duet, (organ and violin) by Miss Miriam Dunn and R. Cameron, and short addresses by R. K. Hall, J. W. McBair, Rev. Mr. Eccleston, J. H. McBair, R. S. Pelton and Wm. Dunn. Ice cream, lemonade and confectionery were sold on the grounds, the proceeds of which, together with the gate receipts netted $18. We understand the amount will be applied towards purchasing a new base horn for the Band. A similar entertainment on a more favorable evening would be heartily patronized we believe.

truths, and his delivery was excellent. We entertain a brilliant future for our young citizen in the noblest of all work—the Christian ministry. The fact of addressing a congregation composed of associates did not appear disturb or embarrass him but rather inspired him to greater earnestness in proclaiming the unsearchable riches of Christ. "I know in whom I have believed" (II Tim. 1:12) was the subject of his discourse.

A CLEVER DIVINE.—The Detroit Sunday News of a recent date says that the National University, of Chicago, has conferred the degree of doctor of divinity on Rev. Breddin Hamilton, rector of St. George's church, Detroit, by examination. Rev. Mr. Hamilton is already a graduate of three British universities and is now the youngest D. D. in the United States. Rev. Mr. Hamilton is a brother to Dr. J. R. Hamilton, of Atwood, and S. F. Hamilton, town clerk of Sault Ste. Marie. Those who have had the pleasure of hearing the rev. gentleman say that he is a clever divine.

score years activity failed to perform their functions and she passed quietly away. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved husband who has reached the very advanced age of 93. The companion of over half a century has been rewarded and the old man aged and decrepid sits patiently waiting his summons to depart. May God grant His sustaining and comforting grace until He may see fit in His providence to call him hence. From a family of 14 only two sons and three daughters survive their mother. The funeral took place on Saturday, July 19th, at 2 p.m. After a short service at her late residence on Main St., Atwood, by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Rogers, the funeral proceeded to the Elma Centre burying ground. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Rogers last Sunday morning to a large congregation. His text, John 14:2 and 3, was very appropriate and his discourse full of comforting and inspiring words to the followers of Christ.
