In this case the amount in dispute was also claimed by Geo. H. Johnson, who claimed an assignment from Patterson. The contest was between the primary creditor and the claimant Johnson, as Echlin, the garnishee, had the money ready to pay before the court ordered. The case arose out of the purchase of apples by Johnson from Patterson and the purchase of oil by Echlin from Patterson. Judgment was reserved. R. M. Thompson appeared for Clark and R. L. Gosnell for Johnson.

An old English army veteran, Wm. Hanna, wandered into town yesterday and soon made himself at home with many of our good citizens. Hanna is a well educated but itinerant wanderer, and takes a keen delight in telling of the famous charge in which but 90 came out alive, 19 of whom are now living. He quickly formed the acquaintance of Paddy Glenn, Blenheim's veteran, employed with Wm. Robertson, and together they exchanged many reminiscences. Hanna was a guest at the Sheldon House by the generosity of the proprietor ere he departed for Ridgeway.

FRIED ONIONS

Indirectly Caused the Death of the World's Greatest General.

It is a matter of history that Napoleon was a gourmand, an inordinate lover of the good things of the table, and history further records the fact that his favorite dish was fried onions; his death from cancer of the stomach it is claimed also, was probably caused from his excessive indulgence of his fondness for the odorous vegetable.

The onion is undoubtedly a wholesome article of food, in fact it has many medicinal qualities of value, but it would be difficult to find a more indigestible article than fried onions, and to many people they are simply poison, but the onion does not stand alone in this respect. Any article of food that is not thoroughly digested becomes a source of disease and discomfort whether it be fried onions or beef steak.

The reason why any wholesome food is not promptly digested is because the stomach lacks some important element of digestion, some stomachs lack pepsine, others are deficient in gastric juice, still others lack Hydrochloric acid.

The one thing necessary to do in any case of poor digestion is to supply those elements of digestion which the stomach lacks, and nothing does this so thoroughly and safely as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Dr. Richardson in writing a thesis on treatment of dyspepsia and indigestion, closes his remarks by saying, "for those suffering from acid dyspepsia, indigestion, sour watery risings, or flatulent dyspepsia shown by gas in stomach, causing heart trouble and difficult breathing, as well as for
