WAS NOT FOR REVENGE

Orchard Gives Lie to Two Witnesses For Defence.

Hercules Mine Deal Had Nothing to Do With Steunenberg's Murder—Was Spotter for Detective Agency—Women Give Evidence—Orchard and the Mine Owners' Association —Witnesses Swear as to Threats.

Boise, Idaho, June 26.—The first direct testimony in defence of William D. Haywood was offered yesterday.
The first witness for the defence was preceded by a further examination of Orchard, to permit the defence to complete its formal questions of impeachment.

Orchard spoke in the same soft tone that he did recently. He again denied that he ever threatened to kill Steunenberg because of the Hercules mine and again asserted that he sold his interest in the mine two years before the trouble which drove him out of northern Idaho.

The witnesses heard yesterday were F. R. Redd, once of Cripple Creek, and now of Goldfield, Nevada; and Charles A. Sullivan, formerly of Cripple Creek, and now a watchman in the Brown Hotel in Denver.

Redd testified that he heard Orchard make the statement and the threat in the Miners' Hall in Cripple Creek, and Sullivan swore that while he and Orchard were fellow boarders, Orchard repeatedly said that but for Steunenberg he would be a rich man, and that he intended to kill him.

The cross-examination showed that both witnesses were members of the Western Federation of Miners, and that Sullivan was a friend of Haywood, Moyer and many of the union leaders.

Dr. I. L. Magee, a mining broker, swore that Orchard told him in 1904, at Wallace, Idaho, that he was a spotter for a detective agency. Orchard denied this conversation.

Several witnesses, principally women, who kept boarding houses at Cripple Creek, testified to Orchard's being in conference at various times with Sterling, the detective for the Mine Owners' Association.

FOR DEFENCE OF CANADA.

Lord Roberts Says Matter Is One of Vital Importance.

London, June 26.—In the House of Lords, Lord Roberts, referring to Haldane's army scheme, the merit of which he acknowledged, remarked:

"We could not leave out of account the most extensive exposed of all our frontiers, Canada's. Could we be silent about the defence of Canada without inevitably conveying to Canadians the impression that we did not consider the defence of Canada of vital importance. Surely if there are any nations to whom we could not afford to give ground for offence they are the nations within the empire.
But how could we offend them more deeply than by refusing to discuss questions which matters of life or death to them."

"If the empire is to be defended at all, the co-operation of the colonies and India is indispensable."

He looked, in the great imperial struggle, not to small contingents, ear-marked for our use in return for our holding corresponding, though far larger, expeditionary forces available to help them. War could not be waged on limited liability principles.

the Axle.

Brantford, June 26.—The fire de-broke his collarbone, and also received other serious injuries, and is in a critical condition.

own expense.
