High and Worthy Ends. These high and precious and holy gifts of God should be used for an end correspondingly high and worthy and holy.

When I sometimes take a hard look at myself, I am the machine that can get a head of human beings, booted the gullotine.

Cherry—Mr told me to run here and ask you if you couldn't give me something for my head.

Minards Liniment Cures Colds, etc. Chawley Gastroika—My dearest Margaret, I love you tenderly, devotedly.

There is something very human in the longing for love and remembrance. No soul, unless it is utterly friendless and solitary, is willing to pass out of life through the gate of forgetfulness.

When Eve had so many pleasures to occupy her time in the garden of Eden, how do you suppose the serpent managed to secure her attention?

Minards Liniment Cures Distemper. What this country needs to develop its business is confidence, said the local politician in the grocery store.

Minards Liniment Cures Gargot in Cows. Ned—Why, I better saw a lovelier girl than Miss Atherton, and she seems to be very fond of you.

Do you go to school, little boy? Oh, yes, sir, I love to go to school. What do you study—reading, writing and arithmetic?

Minards Liniment Cures Diphtheria. Little things are often the hardest things. It is comparatively easy to do a momentary deed of daring that will startle everybody; it is not so easy to do little deeds of quiet courage from day to day.

Never Heard Of. A single instance in which Dadd's Kidney Pills Failed to Cure Kidney Disease.

MOUST FOREST (Special) Sept. 21—The proprietor of the Queen Hotel of this town declares that he has every reason to believe, that any claim made by the people who are advertising and selling Dadd's Kidney Pills is true.

A Plea for the Beautiful. The beautiful has a theological value. It is one of the most conclusive proofs that God lives and reigns. It does not cost any more to put paint on properly than to put it on wrong, nor to put timbers together in a beautiful fashion rather than a homely fashion.

Every human being should do his share towards uplifting the masses of his fellowmen. "Well, I've done my share—I ran an elevator seven years."

Scraps for Odd Moments.

Brown—Does your wife ever threaten to go home to her mother? Jones—No; that's the worst of it! Her mother boards with us.

Wheeler—My doctor advises me to give up my pipe. I don't think I will do so. He—You don't? Wheeler—No, I think he's biased—he's a surgeon.

Miss Watson—Didn't Mr Sark say to you as I entered the drawing-room last night, Clara, "Is that the beautiful Miss Watson? Clara—Yes, dear, with the accent on "that."

Cherry—Mr told me to run here and ask you if you couldn't give me something for my head. Dr Blunt—You run home and tell your ma I wouldn't take it as a gift.

A Useful Elephant. A few years ago, when Lord Dufferin was Viceroy of India, the Rajah of Holkar paid the Viceroy a visit. While he was there he saw Lord Dufferin take up some illustrated London papers which had just arrived by mail and cut them with an ivory paper knife.

Choose Their Associates. Two of my friends, both well-to-do men, had each one child—a son. One of the young men is a gentleman in everything that makes a true man, the other is a perfect rake, familiar with nearly every sin in the catalogue, yet he was one of the noblest little boys I have ever known.

Educating Influence of Fairs. The farmer needs his vacation as much as the merchant or the preacher. Besides the gain in the way of rest, he will not only find time to think, but he will keep his eyes open.
