THE DIVORCE LAWS.

To the Editor of The Gleaner. Sir,—I saw in your paper an article on reform in Britain of divorce laws as to allow a man or woman to get divorced after three years' separation. Why doesn't Canada adopt a similar law for her young men and women? I know several cases where young married men enlisted in the Canadian army and sent practically all their money home to their wives, but when they got discharged and returned home they found no wife. What are these men to do? There are hundreds in the same ship. They can't remarry, nor will the Parliament grant them a divorce. What is the result? They just pack up and go to the United States and get a divorce. What's going to become of this country if all the young men of Canada do the same? Yours, A TRUE CANADIAN, Woodstock, N. B., April 19, 1920.

THE HOUSING PROBLEM.

To the Editor of The Gleaner. Sir,—We are facing a serious problem in this city—housing—and from returned boys there is general disapproval of the manner that this difficulty is being combated. As a returned boy I think the Government did well on the gratuity question and I don't favor a general $2,000 cash payment, but I do think it a shame that soldiers taking up land can obtain a 2,000 dollar loan (university students are granted loans), but how about Tommy in the city, struggling to buy a home? If he have a lot why can't the Government provide the loan for building? Why not help the man who is willing to help himself? Yours, ONE WHO FOUGHT, Fredericton, N. B., April 19, 1920.

SEES PORTENTS IN THE SKY.

To the Editor of The Gleaner. Sir,—A question that I would like to ask, which probably some one of the many readers of your "From the People" column can answer, is this: I happen to live in a country town away from the glare of electric lights, &c., so in this way have an opportunity to notice more carefully the strange happenings and signals in the firmament each night. I do not recall having ever read an explanation of the rapidly with which the stars and moon can vanish. For instance, after admiring the splendor of a beautiful full moon in front of our house recently I took a turn around the house and returned to find the heavens wrapped in darkness. And in five minutes time the moon returned in the form of a white light resembling a huge cross disappearing and reappearing alternately. I notice every night in certain parts of the sky strange flashes of light re-

Weeds For Brides.

"The bride's dress of silk, apricot georgette harmonized charmingly with her hat of brown velvet set off with a bunch of cigarettes at one side."

Surprising Himself.

Oil Promoter—Do you know what would happen if we struck oil in the well?

Friend—You'd be the most surprised man in the world.

One Reason Sounds Reasonable.

Why ice will be high: It was too thick to cut.

The snow was too deep. It was too heavy to handle.

It was too cold to work out of doors.

The dealers need the money.

Marriage Like 'Phoning. She—in a way getting married is like using the telephone.

He—How's that?

She—Well, you don't always get the party you want.

Trogolodyte!

Mrs. Maggis—Yes, my dear, when we quarrel he acts like a savage.

He—How's that?

Mrs. Maggis—He makes for his club.

After a man has suddenly struck it rich he will be surprised at the number of people who grasp him by the hand and say, "I told you so."

FARMERS' ATTENTION!

About May 1st, we, the undersigned, will be ready to start what will be known as the

Carleton County Woolen Mill

in what used to be the Drysdale Wood-working factory on River Street, just below the Grist Mill.

We will do custom carding of Farmers' Wool and will make it into yarn if desired. We have installed up-to-date machinery and will be able to give good satisfaction and return your work at an early date.

The roll for spinning at home we manufacture is in one long piece two or three hundred yards long without any splicing, which makes the spinning a great deal easier and faster.
