TORONTO, FRIDAY, JULY 21, 1876

GLRNGARRYWE understand that the writ for the county has been issued by the Speaker.

The election must consequently take place at an early day. Mr. McNAB, the place at an early day. Mr. McNas, the unseated member, will run again in the Ministerial Free Trade interest, while, we believe, opposition to him will be offered in the person of Mr. John Mc-Lennan, formerly of Montreal, but for several years a resident and large property-holder in the county. Mr. McLennan is assid to be a strong man; and strongly said to be a strong man; and strongly Grit though Glengarry has been in the past, he does not fear to measure swords with the MACKENZIE PARTY.

THE following facts, well arranged by of $1.

ONLY last week the Globe invited the are made to pay 14 to 2c more for their rugar than there is any occasion for, which goes into the pockets of the American re-finers. Whits this is the case, Redpath's refinery stands here with its doors covered with cobwebs, as a monument of our folly and ignorance; but I presume the cob-webs will have to remain on Redpath's doors until they are first removed from the eyes of the Teronto Globe, and of our rulers at Ottawn.

With unparalleled effrontery the Globe, after a long period of silent suffering, mow declares that the figures which we have quoted relative to the Departmental salaries and Contingencies are not to be lost to honesty; but lest its readers

Accounts for 1875, p. 57. There the total of salaries and bonuses is given as $88,936, from which there is to be subtracted (in order to reduce the return to the position of that of 1876) the Minister's salary, $7,000, and the salary of the Deputy, $3,200, leaving the total for comparison with that of 1876 at $78,736, as above. Proceeding to the previous year the Public Accounts for 1874, p. 47, give the total salaries and bonuses as $82,901, from which $7,000 and $3,200 or $10,200 has again to be subtracted, leaving $72,791, as above. Lastly, the Public Accounts for 1873, p. 42, give the total salaries and bonuses as
