

Poplars.

All day and night, save winter, every weather,
Above the inn, the smithy, and the shop,
The aspens at the cross-roads talk together.
Of rain, until their last leaves fall from the top.
Out of the blacksmith's cavern comes the ringing Of hammer, shoe, and anvil, out of the inn The clink, the hum, the roar, the random singing—
The sounds that for these fifty years have been.

The whisper of the aspens is not drowned,
And over lightless pane and footless road, Empty as sky, with every other sound Not ceasing, calls their ghosts from their abode.
A silent smithy, a silent inn, nor fails
In the bare moonlight or the thick-furred gloom, In tempest or the night of nightingales To turn the cross-roads to a ghostly room.
And it would be the same were no house near,
Over all sorts of weather, men and times, Aspens must shake their leaves and men may hear But need not listen, more than to my rhymes.

Whatever wind blows, while they and I have leaves We can not other than an aspen be That ceaselessly, unreasonably grieves Or so men think who like a different tree.

Names For The Baby—Saints' Names the Prettier

The church has always wished that every child of hers should receive at Baptism the name of some saint, in order to be put thus under his protection and dedicated to him. The patron saint, reader, whose name you assumed on becoming a child of Christ, has thus a special interest in you, since you have been consecrated to him from your very birth. His power will overshadow you, his prayers plead for you; and you, on your part, are expected to look up to him and strive (in some measure, at least) to imitate him.

How glorious are those saints how noble and soul-inspiring their lives, how magnificent the achievement of those servants of God whose names are commonly given to Catholic boys.
For instance, St. Patrick, the great apostle of Ireland. It is a grand name for a boy to bear; it is almost a talisman against infidelity. So, too, St. John, the Beloved Disciple, who reclined on Jesus' breast. Apropos of his name, Eusebius, writing in the fourth century, remarks: "By love and admiration for him, and in the hope of being dear to the Lord even as he, the faithful delight to take his name." Similarly St. Joseph, the spotless, who bore the Infant Saviour in his arms; St. Peter, chief of the Apostles; St. Stephen and Lawrence, SS. Ambrose and Augustine, SS. Francis and Vincent, SS. Thomas and Benedict—these are some of the heroes and benefactors of humanity most commonly proposed to Catholic boys as models to revere and imitate.
In the same way, how beautiful are the names, how sweet and winsome the characters, of those saints usually selected as patrons for Catholic girls! First and foremost Mary, the spotless Mother of Our Redeemer, who spent the greater part of her life in Christ's company. Every child is dear to her for the sake of her Son, and she will exercise all a mother's care and thought, all a mother's trembling interest and watchfulness, in favour of those little ones dedicated to her and called by her sweet name.
One would fancy that a Catholic parent need never be uneasy about a child consecrated to the Blessed Virgin, so powerful is her name to uplift and to inspire and to sanctify. After the Mother of God come the virgins and

Pains in the Back

Are symptoms of a weak, torpid or stagnant condition of the kidneys or liver, and are a warning that it is extremely hazardous to neglect, so important a healthy action of these organs.

They are commonly attended by loss of energy, lack of courage, and sometimes by gloomy foreboding and despendency.

"I was taken ill with kidney trouble, and became so weak I could scarcely get around I took medicine without benefit, and finally decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. After the first bottle I felt so much better that I continued its use, and six bottles made me a new woman. When my little girl was a silly, she could not keep anything on her stomach, and we gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla which cured her." Mrs. Thomas Isra, Wallingford, Ont.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cure kidney and liver troubles, relieves the back, and builds up the whole system.

The Baster Bells of Feldkirch.

On the frontiers of Austria is a little town called Feldkirch, containing about three thousand inhabitants. In the year 1799 when the armies of Napoleon were sweeping over the Continent, "carrying all before them," Massena, one of his generals, suddenly appeared on the heights above the town at the head of eighteen thousand men. It was Easter Day, and the rays of the rising sun glittered on the weapons of the French, as they appeared drawn up on the hills to the west of the town.

The Town Councillors were hastily called together to consider what was best to be done.
To defend the place was utterly out of the question. What, then, were they to do? Should they send a deputation to Massena with the keys of the town, and an entreaty for mercy? After much discussion, a good old priest rose and said:
"My brothers, it is Eastern Day. We have been reckoning our own strength, and that fails.
Let us turn to God. It is the day of Our Lord's Resurrection.
Let us ring the bells and have service as usual, and leave the matter to God."

They agreed to do as he had said. Then all at once from the three or four church-towers of Feldkirch there rang out joyous peals in honour of the Resurrection, whilst the streets were full of worshippers hastening to the house of God. The French heard the sudden ringing of the bells with great surprise; and, concluding that the Austrian Army had arrived in the night to relieve the place, Massena suddenly broke up his camp, gave the order to march, and before the bells had ceased ringing not an enemy was to be seen.

What Canada Is Doing
In China

We wonder if Canadian Catholics (writes a correspondent), are aware of the truly magnificent work being carried on in East Shantung, China, by a mere handful of Canadian Missionaries? If not, we should like to introduce them to these gallant

GOT UP IN MORNING

WITH HEADACHE
AND SICK STOMACH.

Mr. P. M. Phelps, Stanbridge East, Que., writes: "I have been taking Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills with such good results I thought I would write you. I had stomach and liver trouble, and would get up in the morning with a headache, stomach sick and feed distasteful. After taking two vials I was cured of these troubles, and constipation as well."

Carelessness and neglect, and oftentimes willful disregard of nature's laws will put the system all out of sorts. The stomach becomes upset, the bowels clogged, and the liver inactive. To bring the system back to its normal state must be the object of those who wish to be well. This can quickly be done by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. They loosen up the liver, get the bowels back to their normal condition and tone up the stomach, making the entire system sweet and clean.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., soldiers of the Cross who are at the present moment labouring in the Chefoo Mission under an Alsatian Bishop, Mgr. Aedevis Wittmer, O.F.M. Grand as was the work done by Canadian troops in the great war, for the mother country, a grander task is yet being fulfilled by the French-Canadian Fathers in Shantung, belonging to the Order of Friars Minor. It is however, a work of which all their Catholic compatriots ought to be intensely proud!

In fact the Franciscan Mission of Shantung is not nearly so well known as it ought to be. For four years of war, with the grinding poverty it meant for the Missions, have not dampened the ardour of these apostolic men, and Father Didace Arcand, has just had the pleasure of welcoming another missionary, who makes the sixth to join the band. Many a miserable Chinese town is the better for the labours of these apostles, even though often they can only fall back upon the most pitiable hovels for chapels.

At Wei-hai-wei, the British treaty-port, Father Prosper Durand, O.F.M., has taken on the Mission formerly worked by the late Father Wilfrid Hallam, the only British Missionary in a district that contained 4,000 villages. And although intelligent native catechists and an eager band of waiting scholars were in readiness, Father Durand has actually had to close St. Joseph's school for lack of the pitiful subsidy of 4 or 5 pounds per month to keep it going. One cannot help feeling if Canadian Catholics knew of the poverty of Wei-hai-wei, they would strengthen Fr. Durand's hands in maintaining British prestige in that far-off city, and thus add to that debt of gratitude which the mother country owes them for their material aid, so generously given in her hour of need, by keeping the Flag of the Faith flying.

At the Yarmouth Y. M. C. A.
Boys' Camp held at Tusket Falls in August, I found MINARD'S LINIMENT most beneficial for sun-burn, an immediate relief for colic and toothache.

pleasure to say that I experienced great relief from Muscular Rheumatism by using two boxes of

DR. WOOD'S
NORWAY PINE SYRUP
SAVED HIS LIFE.

It takes the life out of a mother to see the child—the "idol of her heart"—sneezing away, succumbing to the cruel cough that all the remedies she has tried won't cure.
There is nothing so good for children's coughs, or colds, croup, whooping cough, or bronchitis as Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It is pleasant to take, and it cures so quickly and thoroughly that the heart of the mother is delighted.
Mrs. Angus McKinnon, Richmond, P.E.I., writes: "Last winter my baby was just two months old, when he took a bad cold. He could not keep anything on his stomach with the cough. I tried doctor's medicine, but it gave no relief.
I told my husband I would try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and I must say it saved his life. I just used four bottles and now he is perfectly cured, and I can't help but express my thanks to you for curing my baby."

Two years ago I used it for one of my girls. She had a cold and cough, but the doctor's medicine was no good for her.
I got six bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and it gave her a perfect cure.
I can not praise it half enough.
The genuine Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has been on the market for the past 20 years. Don't accept a substitute and perhaps endanger your child's life.
Price 25c. and 50c. Put up only by

Canadian National Railways—OPERATING ONE HOUR EARLIER

Important Daylight Saving Change of Time at 2 a.m. Sunday, March 30, 1919

All clocks and watches used in operation of Canadian National Railway will at 2 a.m. Sunday, March 30th, be advanced one hour. To prevent serious confusion and inconvenience to the public the attention of all concerned is directed to the following conditions resulting from the important change of time:

If cities, towns, villages and other municipal bodies do not change their local time to correspond with the new Railway time, all concerned should keep in mind that while trains continue to leave Railway Stations on present schedule, such schedule will be operated one hour ahead of present local time. Therefore any municipality where local time is not changed to correspond with the new Railway time, passengers must reach Railway Station ONE HOUR EARLIER than shown in current folders and public time posters.

Where municipal time is changed to correspond with the new Railway time, passengers will not experience difficulty growing out of the change.

Announcement

For the information of our many patrons, in both town and country, we deem it necessary to announce that the Coal Business, successfully carried on in the past by the late Mr. Charles Lyons, will be continued by the Estate, under the old firm name of C. Lyons & Co.

By maintaining a high standard of service and by courteous and honest treatment of the public, this firm has, for a period of more than a quarter of a century, enjoyed a large and ever-increasing patronage; and in announcing our intention of "carrying on," we desire, most earnestly, to give expression to our appreciation thereof. We are deeply grateful to the firm's many patrons for their constant manifestation of confidence in it in the past, and we assure them that if they favor us with a similar evidence of their good-will in the future there shall be no economy of effort on our part to make our intercourse both pleasant and profitable to them.

As we possess almost unlimited facilities for supplying the coal trade, and as we are desirous of extending our already large business, we respectfully invite the patronage of new customers; and if we succeed in thus increasing our present connection, we guarantee that we shall be indefatigable in our endeavor to justify the confidence of our new friends.

We again thank our patrons for their past generous patronage, and respectfully solicit a renewal of their esteemed custom.
