From Pt. Dewling

Salisbury Plain,
England,
Nov. 6th, 1914.

Dear Mother and Father,—
Just a few lines to let you know that I am well and hoping to find you all the same, thank God.

We are having a grand time here. I had three days off and I went to London. I was up to Westminster Abbey and saw the graves of the Kings of old, and I saw the Coronation Chair and the place where the King sat, and I visited Buckingham Palace and saw the Prince of Wales. I went to the Tower of London and saw the King and Queen's Crowns, and the place where the young Princes were killed. I also was in St. Paul's Cathedral at service and sat over the grave of Nelson and Wellington. I saw the house where the Duke of Wellington was born. I will have a lot to tell you about what I saw when I come back. Excuse me for not writing to you by last mail for I did not have time. Don't worry about me, I am all right. I will now write every chance I can get. We did not get paid till the day before I went to London and then I bought a watch for myself there. Everything is cheap in London. I am leaving 80c. per day for you, hoping you will get it all right. I have signed my paper and they are sent to St. John's or this mail. We are having a grand time here, but it is very muddy. The Plains are so level and it has been raining since we came here, and the water has no place to run, but it is fine to-day and very warm. I suppose you have it cool in St. John's now.

We have to get up at 6 o'clock in the morning. We go for long marches some days. We are drying our clothes to-day which were wet last week; sometimes they dry on our backs when we are out for marches. The King and Queen inspected us the day before yesterday. I had the pleasure of seeing the King, Mother, Xmas is drawing near and I would like you to send me some handkerchiefs and socks for a Xmas box and I will bring you something when I come back. If you don't hear from me sometimes, don't forget to write me, for I may not be able to write sometimes, so address my letters 1st Nfld. Regiment, care the War Office, London, S.W.

I don't know what time we are going to the front. We are going in huts next week. I feel very lonely myself sometimes. There's no house in sight here. The handiest house to us is three miles away in a village. How is J. — Is he still working with M. — Give my love to all that ask for me. I suppose father is still working. It is very dull times now? Give my love to Mrs. M. and all her family. Tell them I will write to them soon. It is very hard to write letters here. There are no tables to write on. I am writing this on the crown of my cap. Remember me to all the children; tell Susan and J. to write to me for I am longing to get letters from home. I saw Jack Ash the other day. He is looking fine. I think I have said all for this time, so I must close by wishing you all good-bye. May God protect us till I return.

Your loving son,
STEWART DEWLING.

From Salisbury Plains

Letters from Messrs. Henry W. Cook and A. Hammond, two junior members of the Newfoundland British Society (under date of Nov. 8), have been received by Mr. W. H. Goodland—one of the Guardians of the Albert Edward Branch of that old Society. The letters breathe a spirit of cheerfulness and manliness so characteristic of those already published, as to be worthy of note.

HENRY W. COOK'S LETTER.
Dear Sir,—I was more than surprised when I received your gift. I have to thank the A.E.B. for remembering us. I hope the Branch is growing stronger every meeting. When I return home, I should like to see five hundred members instead of one hundred. I will try and do my best. You know the old proverb: "England expects every man to do his duty."

Yours truly,
HENRY W. COOK.

MR. HAMMOND'S LETTER.
Dear Sir,—Please convey to the Albert Edward Branch of the N.B.S. my sincere thanks for their present, and also for the good wishes accompanying it. As a member of the British Society and also the C.L.B. I considered it only my duty to enlist, and I am sure that the Regiment when they get to the front, will do all that will be expected of them. We have a representation of the Regiment at the Lord Mayor's procession in London to-day. Again thanking you and wishing the A.E.B. and N.B.S. every success.

I remain, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
ARTHUR HAMMOND.

P.S.—I don't know where we will be on New Year's Day (for the anniversary parade) but wherever we may be we will think of our brothers of the N.B.S.—A.H.

An ingenious Post Card has been received from Mr. Geo. Rees, containing 12 views, depicting the Humours of Camp Life at Pond Farm. George, who is a brother of Mr. Alfred Rees, of the Postal Telegraph Staff, says he is having a good time and will write later.—W.H.G.

Fishery Reports.

Nov. 14. From George Vey (Fortune).—The total catch is 1426 qtls. and for last week 40. There is a very good sign of herring and also of codfish, but owing to the weather conditions the fishermen have been unable to proceed to the grounds.

Nov. 21. From M. Vavasseur. (Lawn Point to Little St. Lawrence).—Twenty dories and skiffs and one boat are fishing. The catch to date is 4,500 qtls. with 20 for last week. Prospects are very poor and there is no fresh bait to be had, salt squid is now being used. Owing to the scarcity of bait and cod, and the fact that the weather is becoming very rough, the fishery is about over for this season.

Nov. — From H. R. Clinton (Boxey Point to St. Jacques).—Prospects are nil and there is no bait. During the season, now closed for codfishing, the 30 dories operating got 815 qtls. three traps 200, and 5 bankers, 7,900. The total catch is 8,015 with 982 landed last week. Herring of large size are reported plentiful all over the Bay and from 1 to 2 barrels are being taken by nets. At Rencontre a quantity of herring has been seen and seines have now begun operations.

Great Sketch at Rossley's Theatre.

Last night Kelly and Mack presented the Roman Gladiator to a good crowd, and the audience was in raptures all the time, for it is the funniest sketch ever seen here. Mr. Kelly gave some wonderful sand dances that brought him lots of applause, while Mr. Mack brought down the house by his beautiful cornet solos. The act is full of fun and was thoroughly enjoyed by all as were the pictures. The best show in a long while.

McMurdo's Store News.

FRIDAY, Nov. 27, 1914.
We have just opened a new lot of the famous Willard's Forklift Chocolates. The quality of Willard's needs no push, but every fresh lot seems to make new friends, and these chocolates are now among the most popular and well-liked in the local market. This new lot will be found of the same high grade as former lots, and there are this time some novelties in packages. The prices go from 40c. to $2.50 a box.

Another new arrival is Nyal's Face Cream of which a consignment has just been opened. Nyal's has a great reputation both in Canada and Newfoundland as a first rate emollient and skin food. Price 25c. a pot.

Well Done, Canada!

Extract of letter received from Guelph, Ontario: "Canada will raise another contingent of 40,000 to 50,000 men. We will no doubt send 100,000 before we are through, and should England require twice that number Canada will send the men, for we cannot forget what the Mother Country has done for us from time to time."

Let us follow the example of our Canadian neighbors and double our contingent now doing so well at Salisbury Plain, as well as double or treble if need be our reservists. We feel sure that we have the men and are equally certain that when put before them in a proper way the call will not be in vain.

Our Boys at Halifax.

Mr. Aleck Ledingham, who resigned his position as chief engineer of the Red Cross Liner Stoppano to enlist, was spoken to by the officers of the Florizel. He was then dressed in khaki, and is as Capt. Martin put it, "a fine, strapping looking soldier." Aleck is now in training preparatory for active service. Aleck Ledingham is a brother of Jimmie who is with the Nfld. Regiment.

Scores of boys have enlisted recently at Halifax. Joe McKinley, engineer on the S. S. Florizel, was eager to don the volunteers uniform but, on examination, was prevented from doing so owing to circumstances over which he had no control. Joe feels his disappointment keenly.

Obituary.

There passed to the Great Beyond yesterday, after a brief illness, fortified by the rites of the Holy Catholic Church, Joseph Angel, at the age of 75 years. Mr. Angel was a highly respected resident of Petty Harbor. He worked for a number of years in the employ of Messrs. Baine, Johnston & Co., and for the last half century was an independent dealer with that firm. He was well liked by all he came in contact with, being both mild and gentle. His many friends will be sorry to hear of his sudden passing away. May his soul rest in peace.

Newfoundlanders in the States

HOLD CAKE SALE FOR BENEFIT OF WAR SUFFERERS.

A number of ladies of Everett, Mass., held a very successful sale of pies and cake recently at Booth's Cash Market. The proceeds of the sale, which was considerable, will be devoted to the European War Sufferers' Fund. Mr. Booth, who kindly donated space in his store for the sale, and did other services in connection therewith, is an Englishman, but the ladies committee who provided the cakes, etc., and carried out the affair most successfully, are Newfoundlanders, being natives of Harbor Grace. Their names are: Mrs. A. W. Parsons, Mrs. Edward Tuells, Mrs. J. Sheppard and Mrs. A. Sheppard. Although being American citizens, their sympathies are still with Old England and they express the earnest wish that success will soon crown the efforts of the Allied forces.

THE NEXT SPEAKERS.—At the next Patriotic meeting under the auspices of the S.U.F., the Premier Sir Edward Morris and Mr. W. F. Coaker, M.P., President of the F.P.C., will be the speakers. There will be songs or recitations. Mr. Cliff, K.C., M.H.A., will be Chairman.

DIED.
