Nationalization of Mines May be Effected

Arrested for Bomb Throwing --- Industrial World Workers Jailed --- Newspaper Conditions Being Discussed --- Trouble With Roumania in Prospect.

NATIONALIZATION OF MINES.

LONDON, Nov. 12. A special Congress comprising representatives of all organized Labor, was called to-day to meet in London on December 9th to discuss the nationalization of the mines. It will consider what action might be taken to compel the Government to bring into effect the recommendation of the Sankey Commission that Nationalization be effected.

I. W. W. AGITATORS ARRESTED.

CENTRALIA, Washington, Nov. 12. Nineteen alleged Industrial Workers of the World are in jail here to-day. The men were rounded up yesterday and last night after the firing on the Armistice Day parade, which resulted in the death of four members of the American Legion and the lynching of an I. W. W. member. There was no disorder here this morning.

TRADE GETTING BETTER.

LONDON, Nov. 12. The American Chamber of Commerce of London, in a report for Oct. notes a gradual revival of British productions, especially of coal, and an increase of trade in British foreign markets, particularly as strikes continue to cripple the American export trade.

NEWSPAPER TROUBLE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12. Increased advertising rates and reduction in the size of newspapers were urged to-day by Franklin P. Glas, of Birmingham, Ala., President of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, at a special meeting here to consider the newsprint shortage. "Every newspaper," he said, "should agree to cut down its average number of pages, both week days and Sundays, and hold down its advertising volume to a fixed number of pages. This will probably necessitate an arbitrary reduction of at least 95 per cent. in volume of business. Radical advances should be made in advertising rates as percentage of increase should be such that they will hold back the sluice of advertising that has poured into our offices and bids fair to continue during the next year."

UP AGAINST IT.

ROME, Nov. 12. As election approaches, the excitement throughout the country is growing, and acts of violence are threatening. The latest victim of violence is Adamo Boaris, the democratic candidate in Ferrara. He had driven in an automobile to the village of Marrocca to address the electors, and hardly begun to speak when socialists invaded the meeting and wounded him. The socialists seized the automobile for their own propaganda and kept Boris a prisoner. Soldiers were sent from Ferrara to rescue him.

GETTING FED UP.

PARIS, Nov. 12. The American delegation to the Peace Conference has informed the quicker than a disordered liver or waste-clogged bowels. Don't stay sick, bilious, headachy, constipated. Remove the liver and bowel poison which is keeping your head dizzy, your tongue coated, your breath bad and stomach sour. Why not spend a few cents for a box of Cascarets and enjoy the nicest, gentlest, laxative-cathartic you ever experienced? Cascarets never gripe, sicken or inconvenience one like Sels, Oil, Calomel or harsh pills. They work while you sleep.

Supreme Council of its intention to leave France during the first days of December, according to semi-official information from the French foreign office. The British peace delegation has also expressed the same desire, and the general impression in French conference circles is that the Conference will conclude its work by the end of this month.

FRENCH ELECTION RIOT.

PARIS, Nov. 12. An election riot with revolutionary features occurred to-day in the small industrial town of Dorton, Department of Ain, where extremists are numerous. Republicans were threatened with death and besieged in the Town Hall by turbulent elements. Red flags were carried and a revolution was proclaimed by the besiegers.

THE WINNER.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12. Lieut. Melvine Maynard, the flying parson, won the recent army transcontinental airplane race with the shortest elapsed time, 9 days, 4 hours, 26 minutes and 5 seconds, according to the official decision of the War Department, announced here to-night.

TO THE DUKE.

TORONTO, Nov. 12. The Duke of Devonshire was the guest of the Canadian Club at luncheon to-day. In replying to the toast to himself, His Excellency said, "I am not going into my family history or I might tell you of one bit of it how one of my ancestors had to choose between having his head cut off and being made a Duke" (Laughter). "The ancestor had chosen the dukedom." "Canada," said the Duke, "had made him an optimist. Much has happened since a year ago. It is with thankful hearts that we celebrate the anniversary of the coming of peace." The enthusiasm that Canada has shown in receiving the Prince of Wales has demonstrated the loyalty of Canadians to the Throne and to British institutions. It was not merely an enthusiasm for a fine and engaging personality. While the despotic thrones of Europe have been shattered, the British Throne stands to-day safer than it ever did. British institutions have stood the test and shock of time and change."

ROUMANIA'S REPLY UNSATISFACTORY.

PARIS, Nov. 12. The reply of Roumania to the Allied note recently presented, in which it was again demanded that Hungary be evacuated, is regarded in peace conference circles as wholly unsatisfactory. The note, which was taken up for consideration by the Supreme Council this morning, was characterized as extremely evasive. The Roumanians indicate a willingness to retire to the river Theiss, but they decline to respect the original armistice lines, and also decline to comply with the Allied request that they name a member of the inter-Allied commission to compile a value of the goods seized in Hungary by the Roumanians so that this amount could be deducted from the total of reparations due to Roumania. While the Roumanian note is worded in terms of extreme politeness it is held to indicate a continued defiance of the Supreme Council.

FATAL AIR ACCIDENT.

OTTAWA, Nov. 12. E. H. Dohin, an aviator, who has been doing victory loan stunts in Ottawa and the Ottawa Valley, and a passenger, James F. Murro, a leading citizen of Pembroke, were killed when the airplane in which they were flying crashed to earth four miles from Egansville this afternoon.

THE PRINCE AT WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12. The Prince of Wales started the second day of his stay in Washington with a visit to the National Headquarters of the American Red Cross, where National and District leaders were presented to him. Afterwards he inspected the Lincoln Memorial, and visited the Walter Reed hospital where he met a number of soldiers who were wounded overseas. The Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Frezzone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic! afternoon was left free for the Prince to spend as he pleased in accordance with his desires.

Divers' Chances.

There is a great and increasing demand for divers in order to rescue from the sea the millions of pounds' worth of treasure that has been sunk by the Hun during the war. The actual amount of gold alone that is buried beneath the ocean in torpedoed and mine-sunk ships runs into millions, and there are many millions more in preserved foods and other goods which do not easily perish and which are worth rescuing. Anyone in search of good, healthy employment could not do better than become a deep sea diver. Of course, the work is hard, but from a purely physical culture point of view it is probably the best and most effective way of expanding the lungs and broadening the chest, because deep, regular breathing becomes a necessity. Taken as a class divers are extremely healthy. Consumption, indigestion and similar complaints are practically unknown among them.

Household Notes.

Use brown sugar to sweeten cereals; it makes them taste richer. Milk will cloud glass so that its original brilliancy cannot be restored. To the modern housewife the long-handled dustpan is a great help. A glass of grape juice at breakfast is a welcome change from orange juice.
