The atmosphere of the Conference was unhealthy and unreal, and it was because the methods suggested there appeared to take insufficiently into account the very grave realities of the present situation, they offend French opinion, the newspaper says. It believes that France earnestly desires a pact with Great Britain, but objected to the manner in which the Agreement was finally proposed and

"Quaker Girl" Supper.

PERMANENT DRAMATIC TROUPE.

A plea for a permanent dramatic troupe in St. John's was made by Mr.

F. J. King while replying to a toast at the supper which was tendered the performers and all who assisted in the production of "The Quaker Girl" by the Columbus Ladies' Association on Saturday night. The supper was held in the T. A. Armoury. Mr. King said that the phenomenal success of

"The Quaker Girl" had proved that the public appreciated productions of its kind, and he was certain that they would like to see them more often.

He thought that there should be an amateur dramatic society here, who would every now and then, produce

Gilbert and Sullivan operas, or musical comedies like the Bohemian Girl. Mr. King's suggestion was loudly applauded, an evidence that it met with the approval of all present.

per and all thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Several toasts were proposed and in every case the speeches were excellent. In proposing the health of the Columbus Ladies' Association. Dr.

C. J. Howlett paid a glowing tribute and to their faith in the success of the production. Mrs. J. V. O'Dea responded and eloquently expressed her thanks in a speech which would have done credit to an experienced orator.

Mr. C. Ellis gave statistics concerning the financial success of the musical comedy, and juggled with figures in a manner which caused some later speaker to remark that he was a coming Finance Minister. Mr.

Charles Hutton stated that it had never been his good fortune before to direct a performance in which the chorus had produced so much volume, despite its small numbers. He was so pleased with the result of "The Quaker Girl," that he was quite ready now to take up the baton again.

The toast of the Orchestra was responded to by Mr. Frank Bradshaw in his own inimitable way. He indulged in many reminiscences which to the splendid work they had done.
