SPORTS PROGRAMME.

St. Mary's Garden Party.
Owing to the weather conditions yesterday, the St. Mary's Garden Party had to be postponed, but despite the plans and arrangements made, the committee has decided wisely in holding the big event this afternoon. The sports programme will commence at 3.45 p.m. The programme of events and entrants are as follows:—

Quarter Mile—G. Stone, S. Parsons, C. Press.
Boat and Barrel Race—W. Redstone, W. Carson, C. Reid, B. Stirling, S. Parsons, Gordon Crane.
Cavalry Tournament—L. Hookey and R. Rodgers; E. House, and C. Reid; H. Whitten and R. Stirling.
Half Mile—G. Stone, F. Burridge, D. Badcock, S. Parsons, G. Crane.
Football Sixes—Cadets vs. Holy Cross; Wesley vs. Gaelic.
Tug-of-War—St. Mary's vs. St. Michaels.

One Mile—(6.30 p.m.)—G. Stone, C. Stone, J. Ralph, F. Burridge, G. Crane. Three Mile Road Race—(7.15 p.m.)—Supervisor—Lieut. Col. (Rev.) Nangle, G. Stone, W. Linsgar, R. O'Toole, F. Burridge, G. Crane, J. Rabbitts, D. Badcock, J. Ralph, R. Colyer.

The much talked of 3 mile road race will commence from a point near the Sanatorium at 7.15 p.m. Special trophies for the 3 mile road race (which is under the supervision of Lieut. Col. (Rev.) Nangle and the 1 mile, were donated by Messrs. B. B. Stafford and W. J. Browne, respectively. The balance of the Cups and Medals were donated by Sir J. C. Crobie, Messrs. J. Penelon, S. G. Collier, E. Ebsary, G. F. and E. Snow; and Messrs. Snow & Snelgrove, of R. H. Trapnell, Ltd., and C. D. Slaughter. A fine day is now the only necessary requirement for a successful sports, and a successful sports programme means a successful Garden Party.

ST. BON'S SPORTS THIS AFTERNOON.

Owing to the weather conditions yesterday, the St. Bon's Sports had to be postponed, and as a result, much disappointment was felt by pupils, competitors, and intending patrons. However, weather permitting, the sports will take place this evening, beginning at 5.30 and all interested will be able to spend an enjoyable evening, after their day's work. There will be served from six to seven so that patrons will be able to proceed directly to the Campus from their places of business. The full programme will be run off, and the Mt. Cashel Band will be present to enliven the proceedings with classy music.

MILERS TAKE NOTICE.

The 1 mile race was inadvertently omitted in the M.G.C.A. sports programme as published in Tuesday's column. The above race will be No. 10 event on the programme, in conjunction with Putting the Shot. Entries for the various events can be made with Messrs. Stan Lumsden, T. W. Sparkes, W. Halfyard, and A. H. Thomas.

JUNIOR LEAGUE FOOTBALL.

Gaelic Team Victorious.

The second game of the Junior League series was played last night, when the Gaelic defeated the Scouts by a score of 2 to 1, after a well fought contest. The Gaelic, defending the eastern goal, made repeated attacks on the opposing territory at the opening of play, and as a result, were awarded two penalty kicks. The first one was saved by the Scout goalie, but the second one, kicked shortly after, registered the first goal. Play was very evenly divided during the balance of play, with no further scoring. The second half produced a very improved brand of football. The Scouts seemed to have taken on new life, and played an excellent game throughout. On one occasion the Scouts forwards combined nicely and upon working the ball behind the opposing backs, the ball struck the cross-bar. When the ball rebounded into play Hammond, by a well placed shot, found the net, thus equalizing matters. From then on play was of a give and take nature, and it looked as if the game would end in a draw. Just before full time the Gaelic lads bucked up when Stapleton sent a beauty from the right wing which easily found its way into the net. The game ended, Gaelic 2 goals; Scouts 1. Referee, T. Delahunty.

The Wesley and B.L.S. teams will try conclusions in the next game.

DEMPESEY MAY NOT DEFEND HIS TITLE.

Rickard Unable To Sign Firpo For Elimination Bout With Harry Wills.

NEW YORK, June 6.—Jack Dempsey will not defend his heavyweight crown this year if Tex Rickard goes through with his plans for a match between the title-holder's two outstanding rivals, Luis Angel Firpo, of the Argentine, and Harry Wills, giant negro.

This was disclosed today by the promoter, who explained that inability to sign Firpo for a match with Wills before August 20 precluded the possibility of arranging a championship contest for the winner with Dempsey.

Rickard, however, declared that he might abandon the Wills-Firpo contest for the long awaited title bout between the negro and Dempsey as the outstanding heavyweight attraction of the year. The promoter asserted he determined to stage only one major match, but as yet has not decided which to conduct.

Rickard has Wills signed to a contract for battles with either Firpo or Dempsey. He also has come to terms with Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey for title fights with either Firpo or Wills as a result of negotiations within the past few days. Firpo recently emerged from retirement to accept Rickard's offer of $250,000 for a Wills fight, but has not signed the date because of uncertainty over the article, which the South American does not want to be earlier than August 20th.

FIRPO'S RETIREMENT IS NOT DOUTFUL.

Luis, the angelo Firpo, announced his retirement more than two months ago. He has made no contrary statement since then. All of which seems to convince even the most skeptical that the farewell of the "Wild Bull" has no Patti fragrance attached to it.

There are several reasons why the conclusion comes that Looie will remain retired. A bloke swings first in a prize ring for two purposes: (1) money; (2) hope of a championship. Firpo no longer needs money and he dreams no more dreams of kingship. So return to the scene of resined arenas would mean nothing but more money—which he couldn't spend—and the prospect of having his brains splattered along the Atlantic seaboard.

Firpo Intelligent.
Firpo is a mighty intelligent youth; one with more logic and reasoning power than 90 per cent. of the athletes wearing mittens in this era. His brain undoubtedly has convinced him that the time has come to let well enough alone—and to retire while all his mental facilities are intact and his facial beauty unmarked.

No one knows exactly the extent of Firpo's bank roll. Two years ago he arrived on those shores in steerage, or second cabin. He fought his first fight for $100—and congratulated himself upon the size of the pickup. He drew $1,000 or so for his second quarrel. From that day on he seemed ever-increasing amounts.

The $125,000 that was his portion for the Dempsey jamboree, $73,000 for frolicking with Jess Willard and the $25,000 for beating Jack McAuliffe, plus about $150,000 earned in other ways, mean that Firpo has at least $375,000 stored away with which to buy umbrellas and goulashes and other accessories for wet days.

A sum like that would sustain a blonde chorus girl for a lifetime, which means that it would soothe and nourish Looie through about five reincarnations. Firpo is frugal. Luxury never fastened its tentacles upon him and probably never will. He still thinks in terms of beefsteaks, celluloid collars, trick iron hats, suits that are more comfortable, serviceable than fashionable—and in cottages rather than mansions.

Has Good Income.

Unless Firpo experiences a radical change, he can live comfortably, happily, on $15,000 yearly. Inasmuch as he will receive about $25,000 annually through interest on his investments, it means that fifty years from now Firpo would have about $600,000 more than he has at this moment—even if he never labored in pursuit of another pesto.

ST. MARY'S GARDEN PARTY POSTPONED TILL THIS AFTERNOON.
Owing to the disagreeable weather yesterday the St. Mary's Garden Party which was to take place at Lestery's Field during the afternoon was postponed. The energetic committee, however, spent a very busy afternoon re-erecting the tents and other equipment which were demolished in the storm of the previous night. Should weather conditions prove at all favorable the affair will take place this evening beginning at 3.30 o'clock. The sports programme has been rather upset owing to the postponement, but the committee are hoping to commence the first item at 6.45 p.m. At 7 p.m. the competitors for the Road Race will be brought to the starting point in motor cars. The Race will commence about 7.15 p.m. The other items will be run off in order immediately afterwards to the convenience of the competitors.

DISTEMPER.

A tablespoon of Minard's in cup of molasses made with the bran mash will give quick relief.

Wonderful Models at War Office

A closed room at the War Office in London has puzzled many people, for a long time, but now its secrets have been revealed.

The room, which is known as the Wembley Room, has been jealously guarded for six months because of the wonderful collection of models it contains. These are to be displayed at the British Empire Exhibition.

One of the most remarkable collection of models in this department is a reproduction of the Spanish Armada. For months, naval architects, in the secret room high above Whitehall, have been designing and building this fleet. Every detail of the rigging of the unfortunate fleet has been faithfully reproduced. The finest of the ships is the ill-fated flag-ship that accompanied the Armada. These vessels will be set in a miniature lake at the exhibition.

There is also the Ideal Town, side by side with the town as it should not be. The model is a wonderful picture of minute detail, containing hundreds of houses and dozens of streets.

All the most original minds of the Ministry have been busy for weeks on this exhibition. They call it "The town fit for humans to live in." It has ordered streets, all converged on to a beautiful circular green space, where foundations play and birds sing in the trees. It is a town where there is a minimum of disease, where there is nothing to fear the senses, either ocular or oral; architecturally is the nearest approach to Elysium.

Giant Map Of The World.

A giant map of the world, made of plaster with contours set in water, has been built. Its size may be judged by the fact that the Continent of Africa alone is taller than a six foot man.

Delicately-made model views show the development of a settler's life in Canada and Australia. In the tents in which the settlers first live every detail is shown—the mirrors, the jugs the settler's wife making clothes for her husband with a sewing machine two inches long. All these dwellings are fitted with electric light.

There is a wonderful model of the Government Pavilion at Wembley, and of the British Pavilion of the Centenary Exhibition at Rio de Janeiro, in 1922, both designed by Mr. Maxwell Fry, the exhibition architect.

A rocky precipice, with a road running along its face, shows the destruction of the Turkish transport at Sadi Perweh, during the Battle of Gaza. Bombs are seen falling onto the trapper transport high up on the face of the cliff. The model, which is five feet high is a masterpiece of realism.

The salvage of the Laurentic's gold beneath the sea is the subject of other model. The ship is shown lying on her side, with the gold bars showing; above is the salvage vessel, with the divers descending in the water. On the sea bottom all manner of seaweeds and ocean marvels are shown in miniature.

The Battle of Ypres.

There are many other models, some of which have been created by men who were on the scene when the incident depicted took place—as, for instance, in the Battle of Ypres. The ruined town of Ypres, a vista of shattered houses, is the finest reproduction of a ruined town ever seen.

The bombing of London by night is a remarkable spectacle, which has been prepared for display in the theatre of the Government Pavilion at Wembley. A miniature theatre has been erected, and on the stage London is seen in the sunset. As night falls airplanes glide over Westminster, bombs drop, buildings go up in flames, anti-aircraft guns flash back the answer to the bombs, and eventually the raiders are driven off. Then daylight comes, revealing the ruins of the city. The lighting effects are the finest stage can provide.

These are only a few of the secrets of the Wembley Room. The rest are being kept until the Exhibition opens.

The Last Straw

The bus conductor had had a harrowing day. First of all, it was raining—conductors are not fond of rainy days. Troublesome old ladies, irritating old gentlemen, people who tried to avoid payment of their fares, and other bus pests had combined to do their worst.

It was getting late in the afternoon when an American tourist boarded the bus.

"Say conductor," he exclaimed, "I want your Saint Paul's Cathedral."

"Oh, all right," replied the conductor, somewhat shortly.

"I say," repeated the American in a louder tone, "I want your Saint Paul's Cathedral—and I want it slick. Savvy?"

"Don't worry, guv'nor," retorted the now thoroughly fed-up conductor. "I'm gettin' it wrapped up for you now."
