Men! find
not 1—but 5 advantages in this shaving cream

YOU'D be inclined to try one new way to find better, faster shaving. Here's an invitation to find 5 new ways! Not one—but five!

- Study them:
- 1—It multiplies itself in lather 250 times. A tiny bit suffices for a shave.
  - 2—It acts in one minute. Within that time the beard absorbs 15% of water.
  - 3—The lather maintains its creamy fullness for ten minutes on the face.
  - 4—A clean shave results, for the extra-strong bubbles hold the hairs erect for cutting.
  - 5—The palm and olive oil content brings fine after-effects.

How we developed them
Starting out to perfect a better shaving cream—with the experience of 50 years' fine soap-making—we went to 1,000 men. Asked what they particularly wanted in shaving cream. They gave us, almost unanimously, four of the above features. We added the fifth—strong bubbles.

Then we made up, tested and discarded 130 formulas. It took 18 months. But the results were worth it—shaving cream that went far beyond all others. Now men by the millions are being won to it.

A test such as we suggest will convince you of one thing or the other: either that we have given you remarkable new shaving-comfort—or that our claims are unjustified. In either case you run no risk. So we ask again that you grant us this favor... accept a 10-shave tube.

As a final touch to shaving luxury, we create Palmolive After Shaving Talc—especially for men. Doesn't show. Leaves skin smooth and fresh, and gives that well-groomed look. Clip coupon now.

With All Thy Faults FOREIGNERS' VIEWS OF LONDON.
Visitors from all parts of the world are at present studying London, and apparently gathering mixed impressions.

A Daily Mail reporter who talked to foreigners in the West End and the City recently heard the following opinions expressed:—
Turkish—I would sooner have my children educated here than in Paris or Berlin. There is a greater feeling of safety here, and London has a far higher moral standing. Berlin I consider more artistic as a city. There, too, you can almost find your way about blindfold. Here it is often not easy to find the name of the street.

Spanish—When you get to know people London is a very pleasant town. In Paris there are too many amusements. In London amusement takes about the right place. What especially appeals to me is the seriousness which the Englishman shows in business.

American—I wouldn't like to live in London, although it has plenty of interest. I have never seen anything so filthy as the streets. If I lived here I could not use my car; it would be no use. I could get about better by omnibus.
I don't think your young women make the best of themselves. Nearly every girl in Washington looks pretty, because she makes up well and hides her defects.
As for the manners of the people, they are too polite. It gets on my nerves.
Egyptian—Of all the places in Europe, I have visited I have found people of the best character here.

Plastic Surgery
WHERE BRITAIN LEADS THE WORLD.
Patients are now coming to this country from all parts of the world to avail themselves of the skill of British plastic surgeons.
No greater surgical triumph was achieved during the war than the building up of new faces on men whose features had been blown away or were so mutilated as to make the unfortunate soldiers unrecognizable. Plastic surgery was known before the war, but was never used to such an extent as during the later stages of the conflict. Noses, jaws, and cheeks were reconstructed out of pieces of flesh, bone, and cartilage taken from other parts of the patients' bodies with entire success, and many men now walking about with features given to them by the surgeon would hardly have dared to venture forth a few years ago.
Now that the war is over plastic surgery performs a legitimate and most useful work in repairing the ravages of disease which affect the flesh and cartilages of the face, nose, and ears and in restoring good looks to the victims of accidents.
Fads there will always be such as that of remodeling and reshaping the nose, which came into prominence in America early last year. Some of the operations undertaken for that purpose then were successful; others were not, for plastic surgery undertaken by surgeons skilled in that particular branch of medicine is a different thing from the operations of so-called "beauty specialists."

Accidents at Garden Party
Whilst playing football at Mount Casbel Garden Party yesterday, Mr. J. Adams, member of the C.L.B. Band, fractured his ankle and had to be conveyed to hospital for treatment. Mr. Adams was playing substitute in the C.L.B. team and met with the mishap whilst endeavouring to get the ball from an opponent, Constable Christopher rendered first aid until the arrival of Dr. Fallon, who put the leg in splints and ordered the patient to hospital.

During the pony race an animal driven by a lad named Walsh became frightened and bolting threw the driver to the ground. He was uninjured although he received a severe shaking to the head. Mr. Johnston also met with a painful accident. He was taking a ride on the aerial tight wire and when finished did not get one of the way quick enough so that the trolley fell and hit him on the head, inflicting a deep wound from which Mr. Johnston lost much blood before he was attended to.
