NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must continue the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appear to supply prejudices or deprayed tastes.—Beston Ghôbe.

The character which this Magasine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led, the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitade. The Magasine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
