Abdul Hamid Orders Still Another Warship.

Magnificent Silver and Bronze Cradle for Italy's Heir.

Serious Encounter Between Servians and Albanians—Big Robbery in Paris.

Constantinople, April 29.—The Turkish Government is closing a contract for a new cruiser, although nothing has been paid on account of the cruiser ordered in the United States.

THE GRIESHEIM EXPLOSION. An official return from Griesheim shows that seventeen persons are dead and forty injured as the result of the explosion and fire near there.

BOLD ROBBERY IN PARIS. Three masked burglars entered the American Express Company's office in Paris Friday night, surprised the night watchman, and escaped with 15,000 francs.

ROYAL CRADLE FOR ITALY'S HEIR. Rome, April 29.—The expected heir to the throne of Italy will be cradled in magnificence if not in comfort.

Opposite, at the foot, rises the female figure of the Genius of Louise of Savoy, with the wings distended as though to protect the child, and grasping in her hands the arms of the House of Savoy and Montenegro.

THE figure of Rome rises to a height of six feet, and this is held up by four lions, which are connected by the arms of the twelve districts of Rome.

FIGHTING IN SERBIA. London, April 29.—According to the Vienna correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, 17 persons were killed and many others wounded in a recent encounter between Albanians and Servians at Fridvoritz, Old Serbia.

DOYLE CARTE'S WILL. The will of Mr. R. D'Oyly Carte, the theatrical manager, who died April 3, was sworn to today in £240,817. He bequeathed £1,000 to Rosina Brandram.

second half of 1901 and the whole of 1902. TOLSTOI TO RESIDE IN PARIS. Berlin, April 29.—News has been received here and confirmed from Warsaw that Count Tolstois is to take up his residence in Paris.

THE KAISER WAS MERRY. Elschnach, April 29.—Emperor William arrived here Saturday evening. The emperor enjoyed his trip to Bonne immensely. He visited and conversed pleasantly with all his old Bonn acquaintances of his student days, and distributed many trifling gifts and mementos among them.

At the command of the students' union he was the liveliest of the party. He took command of the symposium, issued orders in a firm tone, and led off the so-called "salamanders," the thunderous rattling of beer mugs on the table when the leading toast was proposed.

He also joined heartily with a loud voice in singing students' songs, bringing down the flat of his rapier in the orthodox fashion, with a crash on the table at the end of each verse.

THE STEEL COMBINE. Earning at the Rate of $111,240,000 a Year, Outside of Interest on Bonds.

New York, April 27.—The Herald says: "On this date the United States Corporation have confirmed the information circulated recently that the net earnings of the big corporation for the month of March, over and above the interest on the underlying bonds, amount to $8,570,000, or at the rate of $111,240,000 a year.

THE figures, while not officially correct, they stand, are approximately so. It was admitted that the Carnegie Company was the largest money earner of the whole group of steel companies, while the American Steel and Wire Company was a close second.

A TALKATIVE JURY. Sudden and Unexpected Termination of a Case at the Assizes Court in Ottawa.

Ottawa, April 27.—A suit at the assizes came to a sudden termination yesterday. Joseph Marshall was suing Samuel Armour, a contractor, for the death of the former's son, Wm. Marshall, who was killed in an excavation made by Armour.

When the court adjourned for lunch, the defendant was in the box. His lordship omitted the usual precaution to the jury that while out for dinner they were not to talk to any one about the case nor discuss it among themselves.

His lordship went back to give the jury the warning, and found that the defendant was explaining his case to them, with ardour. When the court resumed, the judge refused to proceed further, and sent the case over to the autumn sittings.

Rest your arms a little; just a week or two. Wash with PEARLINE—soak, boil, rinse the clothes—just as directed. Then go back to the old way—soap and hard rubbing on washboard, if you are willing. In any case you are better off—you are rested, and the life of the clothes is spared just that much.

symptoms were caused by the stuff, and accordingly had it analyzed. The analysis showed that the material contained ferro-cyanide of potassium. The woman then complained to the police, who appointed an expert to report. He said that the "pillou" contained ferro-cyanide of potassium, a substance harmless in itself, but when brought into contact with acids produced by perspiration brought into existence hydrocyanic acid, which is a violent poison. The court has appointed a further expert to decide if the flannel material could produce the poisoning symptoms in question.

COMPULSORY VACCINATION.

The Indians of the Northwest Being Looked After—Smallpox Case in Oxford.

Toronto, April 28.—The Indian department at Ottawa has agreed, in view of danger of an outbreak of smallpox among the Indians on the Fort Traders Reserve in Northwestern Ontario, to vaccinate every one on the reserve who cannot show recent marks.

Vigorous steps are being made to keep the Brant Reserve within their own bounds. Two more cases were reported from the reserve yesterday.

The Provincial Board of Health received the report of the development of a case of smallpox at Beachville, Oxford county. The report, however, has not yet been confirmed.

Woodstock, Ont., April 26.—Word reached here today that a case of what is thought to be smallpox has broken out in the village of Sweaburg, about five miles southwest of here. The patient, Vernon Corrie, and he is attended by Dr. Beasley, of Eastwood. There is great consternation in Sweaburg and Beachville, as the material could produce the poisoning symptoms in question.

RICH GOLD FIND! Second Bad Rock Discovered on Eldorado Creek in the Klondike—Pay Dirt Yields $50 a Pail.

Tacoma, Wash., April 27.—Passengers just in from Dawson give details of the discovery of a rich second bad rock on the famous Eldorado Creek of the Klondike. In the gravel now being hoisted it is said that a bucket full comes to the surface in which nuggets cannot be seen, but as $50 in many instances, and on one day two men took out dirt that contained $5,000. The discovery has created intense excitement along Eldorado.

"The Christian." Hall Caine's dramatization of his great novel "The Christian," was presented Friday by an excellent company to a gratifyingly large audience in the London Opera House.

The play repeated the success scored on its first presentation here in the fall of 1899, the present company being fully as strong and capable as its predecessor. The dominant roles of Glory Quayle and John Storm were taken by Miss Lilla Vane and Mr. Lionel Adams respectively.

A LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson, Cameron, writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs, and was given up by the physicians. A neighbor advised me to use Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on his advice, I procured the medicine, and less than half a bottle cured me; I certainly believe it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."

The Spring Medicine That Doctors Endorse

Because it is Not a Weakening Purgative, but a Blood-Enriching, System-building Restorative.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is just such a medicine as the best physicians prescribe for patients who complain of the depressing ills of spring, thin, watery blood and exhausted nerve force. If a committee of the most skillful physicians were to meet to formulate a tonic and restorative especially suited to the needs of the human system in the spring they could not do better than to use the formula of this famous food cure.

Doctors are slow to recommend other remedies than their own, but there is not a doctor of any reputation in this country but will tell you that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is as good a spring medicine as it is possible to obtain.

Many of them prescribe this treatment, knowing that the name of Dr. Chase is the strongest guarantee that any medicine can bear. So popular has this remedy become that it seems as though nearly everybody is using it this spring. Ask your neighbors about it, ask your druggist, ask your doctor.

When the ills of spring discourage you and you drag yourself about with aching head, irritable, nervous and despondent, you can resort to the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food with positive assurance that it will rekindle the vital spark of life by purifying and enriching the blood and instilling new nerve force into the weakened system.

Nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of energy, ambition and the power to concentrate your thoughts, nervous headache, dyspepsia and neuralgic pains all point to an exhausted nervous system and foretell the approach of paralysis, prostration or nervous collapse. This is the most trying season of the whole year, but you avoid serious disease and keep the vitality of the body at high-water mark by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, the favorite prescription of the world-famous physician and receipt book author. 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or EDMANSON, BATES & CO., TORONTO.
