It is said that the famous Harvard pitcher, Walter Clarkson, has offers from Chicago and New York, but if he plays professionally at all it will be with Detroit.

Fourteen years ago Burkett, O'Connor and McAleer played together. Now the trio are again with the same club. Jimmie Ryan began playing with Chicago in 1886, when Anson bought his release in the east and brought the voungster out and put him into direct competition with such men as rymple, Gore, Mike Kelly and Bully Sunday, Anson's brother-in-law. Tha year Ryan played 34 games and was at bat 327 times, securing 58 runs and 100 hits and stealing 10 bases. Regarded later one of the surest judges of a fly ball that has ever invaded the big leagues and with a splendid throwing arm, he clinched his position and the next year in 126 games ranked eighteenth in batting, with such names ahead of his as Anson, Brouthers, Fer-Darling, Thompson, Kelly, Ward, Williamson, Fogarty, Richard son, Bennett, Rowe and Sunday, the speed of the last-named bringing him many a hit. present on each racing day. The turf takes up a good part of the King's programme for the future. His visit to Ireland will keep him away from Newmarket during the first spring meeting, but he will go down during the second spring week. His majesty will be present during Derby week at Epsom and at Ascot, and will go to Newmarket for both July weeks. It is un derstood he will be at Goodwood this season, his first visit for four years, and it is expected he will attend Doncaster on his return from Germany. The King will begin his racing season with a stable of twenty horses, half of which are 2-year-olds. If his majesty is to have a successful season, he will have to depend mainly on the latter, as the old ones are anything but flyers.

TAPPED THE WIRES, Knoxville, Tenn., April 9. - Wiretappers turned a trick on a local poolroom today and tried a second pool; room for the second race at Memphis but failed. They played Amorous to win the first race at Memphis, and succeded in betting $300, some of it at 6 to 1. The wire, which had evidently been tapped between this city and Chattanooga, ticked off Amorous as the winner, and when the official repeated it the pool lost $1,280 and later paid out several hundred on the rightful winner, Barkelmore

AFFECTED BETTING. The action of the French Government in raising the amount deducted from the to 8 per cent, has had a deterrent effect upon the French bettors. The money deducted from the pools has been applied to the fund for the additional water supply of the city. amount of money wagered at the tracks amounts to $2,000,000. This immense decrease is shown in the first five weeks
