M'Eachran Clan Holds Reunion

Four Hundred Gather From Many Points in Canada and U. S.

With members present from Buffalo, Detroit, and Richmond, Mich., over 400 people attended the annual picnic of the M'Eachran clan at Springbank park yesterday. There were members present from Toronto and many places in Ontario.

The bulk of the persons attending the outing were from Rodney, West Lorne, Glenora and Melbourne. A splendid entertainment was presented following the dinner, which was served in the pavilion, with the Shubert quartet supplying some very good musical numbers. Two of MacDonald's pipers were there and gave several bagpipe numbers. Intermingled with these musical numbers were speeches given by H. McEachran, Buffalo; Dr. A. Wilson, Detroit; Mr. Carl, Richmond, Mich.; Rev. C. Strackan, Oakville; Dr. Stalker, West Lorne; A. McNiven, Ingersoll; J. D. Eachran, Ingersoll. The officers for the coming season were the same as that of last year, all being re-elected. They are: President, J. J. Stalker, West Lorne; vice-president, J. A. McLean, Rodney; secretary, K. Campbell, Crinan; treasurer, E. S. McEachran, Glenora. The various committees were in charge of Mrs. J. McLean, Rodney, dinner entertainment; N. McEachran, West Lorne, sports; W. McEachran, West Lorne, grounds; J. A. McLean, West Lorne, program entertainment. The next picnic of the M'Eachran clan will be held on the third Thursday in August, 1926, at New Glasgow.

Thousands At Port Learn Value of Rain Insurance

Showers Scattered Prizes Among Crowds at Irish Picnic.

TOMORROW INSURED

Proof of the advertised guarantee that there is always a good time, with fun and profit, at Port Stanley, rain or shine, is afforded by the experience of the Irish picnicers on Wednesday.

When the clouds dampened the sports they simply let a little sunshine in for a special enjoyment—it rained prizes. Every Wednesday, Saturday and public holiday the London & Port Stanley issues to its passengers and patrons of the L. & P. S. cafeteria and Bridge street restaurant in Port Stanley lucky free numbers under simple conditions. If it rains a tenth of an inch between 2:30 and 5:30 p.m., a drawing is held and all holders of the tickets find themselves possessed of a fair and equal cost-free chance to win a prize of substantial value. Wednesday's prize was a console model Columbia phonograph, supplied by Pudney Brothers' music store, Dundas and Waterloo streets, London. The lucky number, drawn by President Charles Finney of the Irish Benevolent society proved to be 4762. The holder of the number has not presented his claim at the time of writing, but he or she has until 6 o'clock this evening to make the claim and thus secure the award that will continue for years to come the enjoyment of the Irish picnic of 1925.

Tomorrow's big rain award will be a distribution of 54 family quantities of Belvoir milk, the new pure Jersey, unpasteurized product of the fully accredited herds of E. S. Little's Belvoir farms at Delaware and Komoka. The first prize will be $10 in tickets, the next three lots of $5 each, then 25 of $2 each and an equal number of dollar tickets. The free lucky numbers will be given out by the railway to its patrons, and if it rains between the hours stipulated the drawing will be held at the beach movies at 9 p.m. and the prizes will be awarded.

Such a drawing would be just another good-measure attraction for the big Saturday evening moving picture show and amateur theatrical contest. The fourth of the Saturday evening series of amateur nights is expected to bring out about a dozen acts of diversified vaudeville, including vocal and instrumental musical numbers, buck and wing dancing, waltzes and fox-trots, soft shoe and national dances, including Russian and Spanish, a sleight-of-hand man and other entertainers. The fact that these amateur nights have doubled attendance at the beach movies on the second and third contests is sufficient recommendation. They have taken the public by storm and are easily the most enjoyable event in amateur or professional theatricals that the people have found in many a day.

The fact that this big bill, costing adults only 15 cents and children 10 cents, includes Tom Mix in Oh, You Tony, and two added scintillating comedies is enough to fill up the dance and movie limited that leaves London every evening at 7:20 and St. Thomas at 7:55, reaching the beach in plenty of time for the big show.

Spontaneous Combustion Believed Cause of Blaze at Mitchell.

Special to The Advertiser. Mitchell, Aug. 13.—Yesterday afternoon Wm. Stoneman's barn was gutted by fire, but the splendid work of the firemen saved the building from being totally destroyed. It is not known how the fire started. Some time ago the loft had been filled with new hay and it is thought that spontaneous combustion might have resulted.
