

NEWS of all THE WORLD told in PICTURES

The Canadian schooner, Blue nose, holder of the fishermen's trophy, was never in danger during the first race with the challenger, Columbia. The photograph from the latter's deck shows the Blue nose leading at an early turn

Removing the laces from old shoes is the latest job assigned to "Puncho", the prize monkey at the London Zoo. To keep him from other monkeyshines, the keepers have him replace them

Despite the number of times Londoners see their Majesties, the King and Queen, they are always enthusiastic at each new appearance. A group is seen cheering the royal couple outside Buckingham Palace

Gilbert Girard, well-known animal mimic, claims to understand and talk fluently the language of every bird and animal. He is seen enjoying a chat with the gorilla at the New York Zoo.

Dr. Karl Heinze, newly appointed commissioner representing the Reich in Saxony, now faces the problem of organizing the food situation throughout the country

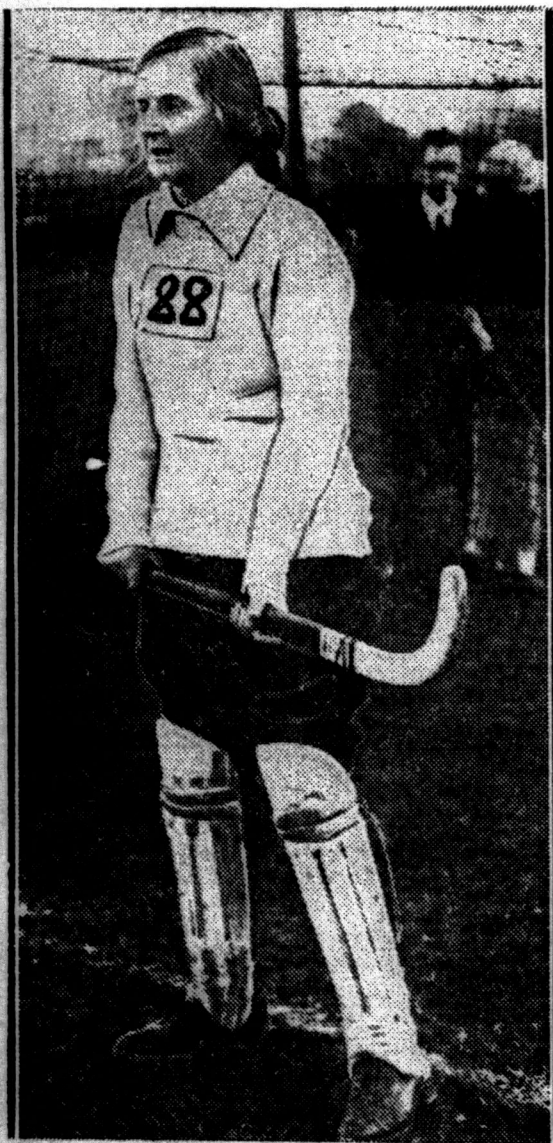

Evelyn Laye, now playing in a revival of the "Merry Widow" in London, has received the unanimous vote of her audiences as being the prettiest girl in England

Minnesota's only woman sheriff, Mrs. Anna M. Lowe, was appointed to succeed her husband. When taking the pledge of office she declared that she would never carry a gun

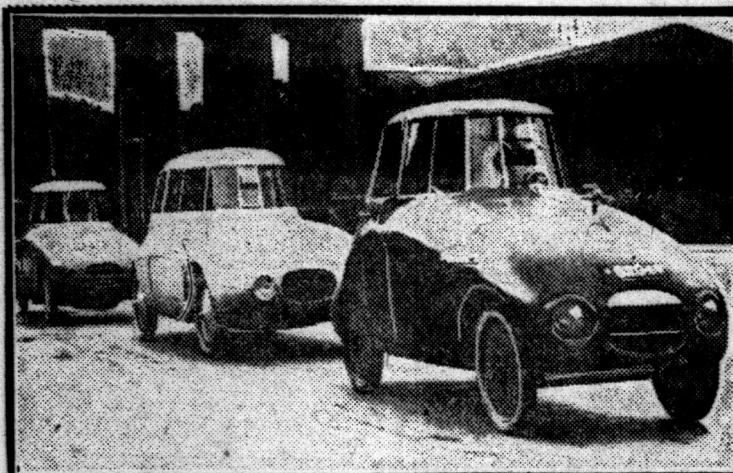

Anson Clement "sits tight" on his nugget worth $10,000, found near Cobalt, awaiting the outcome of an injunction preventing him from disposing of his find until the ownership is settled

Miss "Charlie" Marsh, who won fame during the war as chauffeur to Lloyd George, recently attracted attention when she played a sensational game of hockey in goal for a ladies' team at Wembley, England

Dame Fashion was particularly pleased with this evening dance frock of old gold taffeta with cream lace and the large black velvet bow

What is said to be the automobile of the future made its appearance on the streets of Berlin recently. The car, which is specially built to resist air current, is the work of a Swiss inventor

The Hi-Y Club is an organization of high school boys under the direction of the American Y.M.C.A. New members entering the order are seen pledging themselves to clean living, speech, athletics and scholarship

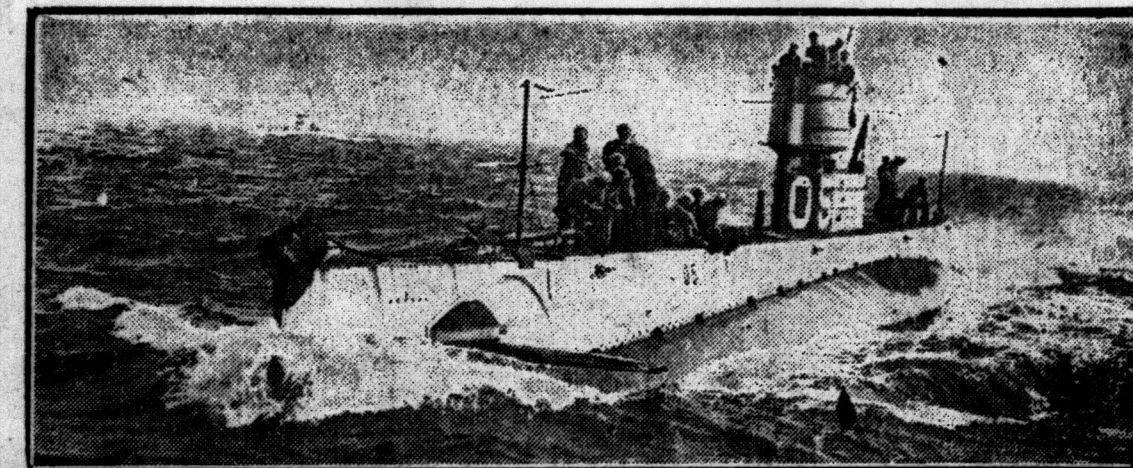

London policemen have taken up rugby as a means of keeping fit. In their first game against Charing Cross Hospital, one of the latter players is seen trying to get the ball against strong opposition

Vernon Schwab lost his right leg hunting, but he has continued to play rugby since 1921. Despite his artificial limb he is considered one of the best back field men among American scholastic players

An opportunity will be given to see Canada's best live stock at the Royal Winter Fair which opens in Toronto this month. The six-horse hitch of the Dominion Transport Company, champions of the Dominion Day open air horse parade, will be a contestant.

Two men were rescued from the U.S. navy submarine O-5 which was sunk in collision off the Atlantic end of the Panama Canal. They were imprisoned in the sunken hull for thirty-one hours

Read Julia Hoyt's Suggestions on Good Taste in Furnishing