

FIGHT IN FIELD AND IN COURTS

Republics of Central America Likely to Have General Row.

CONVENTION TALKED OF

Honduras and Nicaragua Sue in the New Court of Justice.

Mexico City, July 11.—The state department of Mexico and the United States are exchanging telegrams over the situation in Central America, and both governments are prepared to intervene if Honduras makes the request.

A startling rumor is that Puerto Cortes, on the Pacific coast of Honduras, has been invaded by a force organized in Guatemala. If this is true it is declared that all Central America will be involved in hostilities.

Fights in Prospect. Tegucigalpa, July 11.—Government troops will attack the revolutionists at Gracias tomorrow. The revolutionists, numbering about 300, captured the city after three days of fighting.

Taken to Court. Tegucigalpa, Honduras, July 11.—The government of Honduras today instituted suit before the Central American court of justice, which was formally opened at Cartago, Costa Rica, on May 25 of this year, against the government of Nicaragua.

Nicaragua Also. Managua, Nicaragua, July 11.—The Nicaraguan government has presented a complaint to the Central American court of justice, demanding that the government of Honduras be held responsible for the revolutionists of Honduras.

An Interesting Question. Washington, July 11.—Great interest was manifested at the state department and in the American diplomatic colony in the news that Honduras had instituted suit before the Central American court of justice against Salvador and Guatemala.

DROWNED NEAR UNION. Ralph Doane Meets Death Through Capsizing of Rowboat—His Body Recovered.

Nanaimo, July 11.—Ralph Doane, a married man, 22 years of age, while bringing some freight to an American island in a small row boat to Union bay yesterday, was drowned by the capsizing of his boat. His body was taken to Bellingham for burial.

COMOX PIONEER DEAD. Samuel J. Cliffe, Who Had Long Resided in the Valley, Dies at Province in 1862.

Comox, July 11.—The funeral of the late Samuel J. Cliffe took place to the church of England cemetery at Sandwick. The obsequies were conducted by the Masonic order which turned out in a large body to pay their last respects to the dead.

COMOX PIONEER DEAD. Samuel J. Cliffe, Who Had Long Resided in the Valley, Dies at Province in 1862.

COMOX PIONEER DEAD. Samuel J. Cliffe, Who Had Long Resided in the Valley, Dies at Province in 1862.

COMOX PIONEER DEAD. Samuel J. Cliffe, Who Had Long Resided in the Valley, Dies at Province in 1862.

COMOX PIONEER DEAD. Samuel J. Cliffe, Who Had Long Resided in the Valley, Dies at Province in 1862.

COMOX PIONEER DEAD. Samuel J. Cliffe, Who Had Long Resided in the Valley, Dies at Province in 1862.

NEW BILLS OF LADING

Washington, July 11.—A new uniform bill of lading, designed as a substitute for the bills now in use for the movement of miscellaneous freight and general merchandise, was today approved and its adoption recommended to the common commission.

Extend Resort May Close. Ostend, July 11.—Hotel proprietors and storekeepers are greatly excited over a report that the proprietor of the famous gambling resort which brings thousands of visitors to Ostend has decided to transfer his establishment to Scheveningen, a fashionable bathing resort in the Netherlands.

English Hop Industry. London, July 11.—The select committee recently appointed by the House of Commons to consider means for rehabilitating the hop industry, sent a report last night. It says that in view of the fact that the importation of foreign hops during the last 30 years has increased, the committee does not consider that foreign competition is so potent a factor in the cause of depression as to demand exceptional treatment.

Washington, July 11.—Senator Veloz today left Washington tonight for New York, whence he will sail for Venezuela next week on the first convenient steamer.

ACTIVITY CONTINUES IN MINING REGION

Production of Ore Shows a Further Increase for the Past Week.

Washington, July 11.—Following are receipts at smelters of the principal mining districts of the United States for the past week and the year to date:

Table with columns: District, Week, Year. Rows include: Grand total, East Columbia River, Whitewater, etc.

Grand total 4,774 145,873. East Columbia River 424 10,799. Whitewater, milled 280 7,700.

Grand total 4,774 145,873. East Columbia River 424 10,799. Whitewater, milled 280 7,700.

Grand total 4,774 145,873. East Columbia River 424 10,799. Whitewater, milled 280 7,700.

Grand total 4,774 145,873. East Columbia River 424 10,799. Whitewater, milled 280 7,700.

Grand total 4,774 145,873. East Columbia River 424 10,799. Whitewater, milled 280 7,700.

Grand total 4,774 145,873. East Columbia River 424 10,799. Whitewater, milled 280 7,700.

Grand total 4,774 145,873. East Columbia River 424 10,799. Whitewater, milled 280 7,700.

Grand total 4,774 145,873. East Columbia River 424 10,799. Whitewater, milled 280 7,700.

Grand total 4,774 145,873. East Columbia River 424 10,799. Whitewater, milled 280 7,700.

Grand total 4,774 145,873. East Columbia River 424 10,799. Whitewater, milled 280 7,700.

Grand total 4,774 145,873. East Columbia River 424 10,799. Whitewater, milled 280 7,700.

VIEWS ABROAD OF U. S. CONTEST

London Papers Generally Look Upon Mr. Taft as Likely Winner.

THE PERSONAL EQUATION

Landslide Needed for Mr. Bryan's Election Hardly to Be Expected

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the differences of the platforms of the opposing parties, as from the striking personality of the candidates.

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the differences of the platforms of the opposing parties, as from the striking personality of the candidates.

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the differences of the platforms of the opposing parties, as from the striking personality of the candidates.

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the differences of the platforms of the opposing parties, as from the striking personality of the candidates.

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the differences of the platforms of the opposing parties, as from the striking personality of the candidates.

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the differences of the platforms of the opposing parties, as from the striking personality of the candidates.

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the differences of the platforms of the opposing parties, as from the striking personality of the candidates.

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the differences of the platforms of the opposing parties, as from the striking personality of the candidates.

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the differences of the platforms of the opposing parties, as from the striking personality of the candidates.

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the differences of the platforms of the opposing parties, as from the striking personality of the candidates.

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the differences of the platforms of the opposing parties, as from the striking personality of the candidates.

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the differences of the platforms of the opposing parties, as from the striking personality of the candidates.

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the differences of the platforms of the opposing parties, as from the striking personality of the candidates.

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the differences of the platforms of the opposing parties, as from the striking personality of the candidates.

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the differences of the platforms of the opposing parties, as from the striking personality of the candidates.

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the differences of the platforms of the opposing parties, as from the striking personality of the candidates.

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the differences of the platforms of the opposing parties, as from the striking personality of the candidates.

SHAH APOLOGIZES

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

London, July 11.—The Times correspondent at Tehran says that two of the Shah's ministers tomorrow will go to the British legation formally to apologize for the disrespect shown to the British flag during the recent troubles.

MAY PROROGUE NEXT SATURDAY

Parliament at Last Nearing End of the Session's Business.

GENERAL ELECTIONS SOON

Bill to Prohibit Importation and Manufacture of Opium.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

Ottawa, July 10.—The afternoon session was spent in committee on the Manitoba grain bill, which was reported on and stands for third reading.

SCHOOL DESTROYED

Woodstock, N. B., July 11.—Broadway school was destroyed by fire this morning. Loss over $12,000; insurance, $7,000.

Heat in Chicago. Chicago, July 11.—The highest temperature in seven years was recorded in Chicago today. Two deaths, and numerous prostrations resulting. The official temperature was 86.

Athletes Entertained. London, July 11.—Baron Desborough and the other members of the Olympic council held a reception for the visiting athletes in the Grafton hall gallery tonight. The distinguished assemblage included Lord Alington, the Lord Chief Justice of England. Nearly 5,000 invitations were issued for the reception.

Mayor Sues for Libel. Philadelphia, July 11.—Mayor John Rehrer, of this city, today through A. S. Shield, his counsel, instituted proceedings against E. A. Van Valkenburg, editor and proprietor of the North American, and six members of the staff of the newspaper, charging them with criminal libel. The charges are based on cartoons and articles appearing in the newspaper during the last two years. Counsel for the mayor notified Mr. Van Valkenburg's counsel of the action taken, and fixed next Tuesday for a hearing of the charges before a magistrate.

Death of Bishop Curtis. Baltimore, Md., July 11.—Right Rev. Alfred A. Curtis, Roman Catholic Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and Vicar General of the arch-diocese of Baltimore, died here at 8:45 a.m. He had been under treatment for cancer of the stomach, and his death has been for some days a matter of public concern.

Death of Bishop Curtis. Baltimore, Md., July 11.—Right Rev. Alfred A. Curtis, Roman Catholic Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and Vicar General of the arch-diocese of Baltimore, died here at 8:45 a.m. He had been under treatment for cancer of the stomach, and his death has been for some days a matter of public concern.

Death of Bishop Curtis. Baltimore, Md., July 11.—Right Rev. Alfred A. Curtis, Roman Catholic Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and Vicar General of the arch-diocese of Baltimore, died here at 8:45 a.m. He had been under treatment for cancer of the stomach, and his death has been for some days a matter of public concern.

Death of Bishop Curtis. Baltimore, Md., July 11.—Right Rev. Alfred A. Curtis, Roman Catholic Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and Vicar General of the arch-diocese of Baltimore, died here at 8:45 a.m. He had been under treatment for cancer of the stomach, and his death has been for some days a matter of public concern.

Death of Bishop Curtis. Baltimore, Md., July 11.—Right Rev. Alfred A. Curtis, Roman Catholic Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and Vicar General of the arch-diocese of Baltimore, died here at 8:45 a.m. He had been under treatment for cancer of the stomach, and his death has been for some days a matter of public concern.

Death of Bishop Curtis. Baltimore, Md., July 11.—Right Rev. Alfred A. Curtis, Roman Catholic Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and Vicar General of the arch-diocese of Baltimore, died here at 8:45 a.m. He had been under treatment for cancer of the stomach, and his death has been for some days a matter of public concern.

Death of Bishop Curtis. Baltimore, Md., July 11.—Right Rev. Alfred A. Curtis, Roman Catholic Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and Vicar General of the arch-diocese of Baltimore, died here at 8:45 a.m. He had been under treatment for cancer of the stomach, and his death has been for some days a matter of public concern.

Death of Bishop Curtis. Baltimore, Md., July 11.—Right Rev. Alfred A. Curtis, Roman Catholic Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and Vicar General of the arch-diocese of Baltimore, died here at 8:45 a.m. He had been under treatment for cancer of the stomach, and his death has been for some days a matter of public concern.

Death of Bishop Curtis. Baltimore, Md., July 11.—Right Rev. Alfred A. Curtis, Roman Catholic Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and Vicar General of the arch-diocese of Baltimore, died here at 8:45 a.m. He had been under treatment for cancer of the stomach, and his death has been for some days a matter of public concern.

Death of Bishop Curtis. Baltimore, Md., July 11.—Right Rev. Alfred A. Curtis, Roman Catholic Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and Vicar General of the arch-diocese of Baltimore, died here at 8:45 a.m. He had been under treatment for cancer of the stomach, and his death has been for some days a matter of public concern.

Death of Bishop Curtis. Baltimore, Md., July 11.—Right Rev. Alfred A. Curtis, Roman Catholic Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and Vicar General of the arch-diocese of Baltimore, died here at 8:45 a.m. He had been under treatment for cancer of the stomach, and his death has been for some days a matter of public concern.

Death of Bishop Curtis. Baltimore, Md., July 11.—Right Rev. Alfred A. Curtis, Roman Catholic Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and Vicar General of the arch-diocese of Baltimore, died here at 8:45 a.m. He had been under treatment for cancer of the stomach, and his death has been for some days a matter of public concern.

Death of Bishop Curtis. Baltimore, Md., July 11.—Right Rev. Alfred A. Curtis, Roman Catholic Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and Vicar General of the arch-diocese of Baltimore, died here at 8:45 a.m. He had been under treatment for cancer of the stomach, and his death has been for some days a matter of public concern.

Death of Bishop Curtis. Baltimore, Md., July 11.—Right Rev. Alfred A. Curtis, Roman Catholic Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and Vicar General of the arch-diocese of Baltimore, died here at 8:45 a.m. He had been under treatment for cancer of the stomach, and his death has been for some days a matter of public concern.

Death of Bishop Curtis. Baltimore, Md., July 11.—Right Rev. Alfred A. Curtis, Roman Catholic Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and Vicar General of the arch-diocese of Baltimore, died here at 8:45 a.m. He had been under treatment for cancer of the stomach, and his death has been for some days a matter of public concern.

Death of Bishop Curtis. Baltimore, Md., July 11.—Right Rev. Alfred A. Curtis, Roman Catholic Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and Vicar General of the arch-diocese of Baltimore, died here at 8:45 a.m. He had been under treatment for cancer of the stomach, and his death has been for some days a matter of public concern.

Death of Bishop Curtis. Baltimore, Md., July 11.—Right Rev. Alfred A. Curtis, Roman Catholic Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and Vicar General of the arch-diocese of Baltimore, died here at 8:45 a.m. He had been under treatment for cancer of the stomach, and his death has been for some days a matter of public concern.

FACING DEATH TO MAKE ESCAPE

Members of Chinese Crew Leave Their Vessel and Take to Water.

TWO DROWN; ONE MAY DIE

Peculiar Occurrence on Board British Steamer at New York.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

New York, July 11.—As the British steamer Strathgairn was about to sail for Norfolk, Va., from pier 11 in Erie Basin today, twenty Chinamen, members of a crew of 40 Celestials who have been in a state of mutiny ever since the vessel docked here, made a concerted effort to leap overboard.

REPORT FROM OTTAWA EXCITES FREE PRESS

Winnipeg Liberal Paper Talks on Subject of Separate Schools.

SEARCH FOR POLE

Word From Explorer Cook—His Friends Await Account of His Long Silence.

London, July 11.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, of Brooklyn, the explorer, who is trying to reach the north pole by a new route through Nansen straits and whose friends were fearful that he had met disaster in the frozen north, has been heard from.

London, July 11.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, of Brooklyn, the explorer, who is trying to reach the north pole by a new route through Nansen straits and whose friends were fearful that he had met disaster in the frozen north, has been heard from.

London, July 11.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, of Brooklyn, the explorer, who is trying