of that revived monstrosity, the crinoline. Like many others devices which we are modern, the crinoline seems, in reality, to be exceedingly ancient. Hesiod. who wrote in the eighth century before Christ, must have observed something of the kind, for he advises young men not to be led astray by certain women of his day who wore their clothes puffed out behind. For more than twenty centuries after Hesiod's time, languished in constomed to regard as comparatively hacurity; and it was not until after Queen Elizabeth had come to the throne of England that the farthingale became fashionable. The farthingale, or vertugade, which served to extend the skirts of the ladies of quality who were Shakespeare's contemporaries, is described as having been made of hair and wadding. In the eighteenth century whalebone generally took the place of these cumbrous materials, organs and is only developed under favorable in England, and, covered with silk and cotton, steel hoops won their way to universal favor until, a few years ago, they were partially superseded by folds of highly starched muslin, If "dress improvers were actually worn by the Greek women of Hailly supersed to the skin suppression, perspiration, badly ventilated sleeping apartments, and other poisons that are gerainated in the blood. These poisons keep the internal lining of Hesiod's day, it is not improbable that they were also worn 200 years earlier, and that Helen, when she fled with Paris to Troy, wore some primitive kind

IN CASH

THE LI-QUOR TEA CO. of Canada (Geo. Clarke, Proprietor) have determined to offer the following PRIZES, viz::

2nd Prize - . $50 in cash. 3rd Prize - . $25 in cash. 4th Prize - - $25 in cash. To the person sending in before September 1st, 1885, the longest list of words made from the let-ters composing the following:

In this phrase, as it stands above, there are ELEVES BAFFERENT letters, five of them vowels, and many words can certainly be found in such a combination with ease. The prize will, however, probably find its way to one of the enterprising readers of these lines who goes beyond the obvious words. There is a chance for every industrious mind, as mere eleverness will not go for so much in this competition as perseverance. Boys and girls may occupy themselves with this problem as well as their elders, and there is no limit to the number of lists which may be sent from one family.

Any patron of the Li-Quor Tea Co. is free to mail us his list, and it is to be hoped that many will be heard from, one having as good a chance as another in this competition. Those not already customers may become eligible to compete by sending with their lists six Half-pound Vouchers taken from our packets of tea at either 50 cents, 60 cents, 70 cents, or 80 cents per lb., for which they may select as usual the books or bonuses to which they are entitled.
