Their Trial and May Withdraw Their Money-The O. J. C. Spring Meeting-Purses Will Be Increased-Curley Before Judge Morlan yesterday a verdict was reached in the now celebrated Durna

Certain amounts were wagered on Durna against the field in the amateur single soci event at the C.A.A.O Regatta on Toront Bay last summer, John Luxton bet $100 with James A. Young on Durnan against the field; Alexander R. Carmichael bet $25 and Michael Clancy $75 on the same terms.

crookedness of the race, and on the advice of his lawyer. Mossop paid the money into court. His Honor gave judgment yesterday solely as to the legality of the wager, and did consider whether the race was square or not. His ruling was in favor of Laxton, Clancy and Carmichael and against Young. The statute of Queen Anne was quoted. The het fell within this which permits a party losing money at a game to recover it by process of law. This ruling demonstrates that any stakeholder may pay over the amount of the wager to the winner solely at his pleasure. And the legal question arises: When the stakeholder pays over the wager to the winner, how would the loser get back his?
