

TESTIMONY :—(Continued.)

Gibbs : his conduct in this case, p. 164–174.

His opinion of the P. S. A. Company ; Incongruity of his position, p. 166–7.

His account of Astoria, p. 168.

Case of the “ Prince of Wales,” p. 164, 170–1.

Concluding Remarks on Evidence, p. 174.

Superiority of Evidence of Claimants, p. 174–5.

RIGHT OF TRADE, p. 175–181.

Extensiveness of Company’s Trade, p. 175.

Annual value of, about $50,000, p. 176.

Lowe : £35,000 profits in 1847, p. 176.

Douglas, p. 176–8.

Mactavish, p. 178–9.

Anderson, A. C., p. 179.

Harris, Company’s Accountant ; (Doc. Ev. of U. S.) p. 180–1.

McKinlay, p. 181.

NAVIGATION OF COLUMBIA RIVER, p. 181–187.

Right held by Company under 2nd Art., p. 181.

Question as to power of Commission to deal with, p. 181.

Right valued at £300,000 in Memorial, p. 182.

Right belongs to Company alone, who alone can transfer it, p. 183. Mr. Webster, Mr. Bibb, p. 183–4.

McKinlay : Importance of Right, p. 184.

McDonald : Traffic on the Columbia, p. 185.

Mactavish : Importance of Right, p. 185.

Bradford : Most valuable Evidence on Magnitude of Trade ; O. S. N. Company, p. 185.

FOURTH PROPOSITION, p. 187–218.

Failure of United States to protect the Company, and aggressions on and usurpation of Company’s Rights, p. 187.

I. Dispossession by direct acts of public functionaries, p. 187–199.