The sheep, of which 21 lots were sold, varied considerably in price, and ranged from $10 to $140. Three Berkshire sows were sold, at $24, $25, and $20 respectively.

At the prize show of the Kent and Surrey Rabbit Fanciers held on Tuesday, at Walworth, the lop-eared rabbit which won the first prize had ears which measured 23 inches in length, and breeders now produce rabbits with the longest ears ever previously attained. Many other beautiful specimens of rabbits, for weight, color, and carriage were exhibited, and prizes awarded to the owners of the best.
