There shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie; but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.—Rev. xxi. 27. They are also adorned with Beautiful Fountains.

Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.—2 Cor. vi. 2.

The Cyclometer.

WHAT is a cyclometer? It is a small instrument used by bicycle and tri-cycle riders for measuring the distance run. He can thus tell how far he has travelled since his last examination; and if he knows the route, can tell the probable time of his arrival at his destination.

In a spiritual sense we are all travellers along a road we have not traversed before. We shall do well, therefore, to carry with us a spiritual cyclometer, and frequently to use it. After the day's work it were well to ask, "What distance have I run to-day, and along what road have I travelled?"

One all important inquiry which you must settle before proceeding further is this:—On which road am I travelling? Settle at once this question:—Is my face set Heavenward? Whither do my footsteps tend—to Heaven or hell? It is a solemn consideration that you must belong to one of the two classes of pilgrims. You are either treading the path that leadeth unto life, or you are following the road that leadeth to destruction.

If on the former, then self-examination will open to you a wide range of inquiry, for we are told to "Examine ourselves."

If on the latter road, we pray you to turn: there is danger ahead. "Turn ye, turn ye, for why will ye die;" and turn at once.
