

the Morrice Hall, where the escape is kept for safety, carries it up whence he came, and climbs down the outside. Of course the other occupants of the building may cast themselves gently upon the lawn in front, or descend to the ground by means of the barbed wire fence recently erected in the rear. Let not the hook and ladder trucks of the City Fire Brigade have an unnecessary run.

.

For the information of new students we would say that last year a sum of money was raised in the College for the support of two native missionaries in the South Sea Islands. It was understood that this should continue from year to year. Mr. Murdoch McKenzie is treasurer, and we remind all that he is ready to receive the subscriptions at any time. A few have been handed in already, and it is most desirable that all should maintain the same spirit of interest which led us so heartily to respond to the feelings of sympathy for the heathen awakened in us by Mr. Robertson's touching address of last year.

PERSONALS.

Mr. J. H. Higgins, B.A., following the bent of his philosophic mind, is taking an additional course in Philosophy, under Professor Young of Toronto University. We expect him back next year.

Mr. J. A. Martin, B.A., is at Union Seminary, N.Y., and Mr. G. A. McLennan, B.A., at Knox, Toronto.

Mr. McCusker, student of 2nd year Arts, is engaged in teaching school at Bearbrook, in the vicinity of Ottawa. This was his field of labor for the summer. In addition to his work as a teacher he still maintains regular services.

We are glad to be able to announce the convalescence of Rev. W. A. McKenzie, B.A., who, since the middle of September, has been prostrated with typhoid fever. Since graduating Mr. McKenzie has been engaged in work in the North West, but returned to his home in Lanark, last April, where he now is. He is the holder of the David Morrice Fellowship.

Mr. George Whillans, B.A., has been spending the summer as an assistant in a congregation down in Cape Breton. He is expected to return at an early date.

Messrs. Robert Stewart, B.A., and W. K. Shearer, B.A., graduates, are taking a session at Union Theological Seminary, New York.

We noticed recently the announcement of the marriage of Rev. J. C. Campbell, formerly a student of this College, afterwards of San Francisco. He is settled at Eganville, Co. of Renfrew. We congratulate him.

We are pleased to learn that our esteemed graduate of '85, Rev. M. L. Leitch, has since matriculated in the school of matrimony, and in that advanced course is winning many honors. The culmination of the