The Local Courts'

AND

MUNICIPAL GAZETTE.

OCTOBER, 1872.

TO OUR READERS.

The Local Courts' and Municipal Gazette became a distinct publication from the Upper Canada Law Journal in the year 1865. The reasons for that change were fully given in the first page of the January number of that year. It was there stated that at first a large measure of support came from County and Division Court officers, but that at that time (1865) this had somewhat changed, and professional men and County and Division Court officers stood nearly on a par as to numbers on the subscription list. This change has continued so that now the support of the latter class has become so small as not to warrant the extra expense attendant upon a separate publication, whilst the number of our subscribers amongst the profession has increased in a most satisfactory and encouraging manner. The reason for this change is easily accounted for. In the first place, the business of the Local Courts has greatly fallen off, so that many who could well afford the luxury of a legal paper have been reluctantly compelled (we quote the words of many who have so expressed themselves) to withdraw their subscriptions; and in the second place, officers now-a-days are pretty well versed in their duties, and do not require the same advice and information which it has been our province and our pleasure to give them. We think that for this result we may, without egotism, take some credit to ourselves. We think we have been enabled in many ways to induce a greater uniformity of practice, and to inculcate more sound views of the duties of local officers than obtained before we entered the field.

We do not, however, wish our readers to understand that we do not intend in future to do all in our power to supplement and continue what we have so far accomplished for the benefit of those who were at the first our principal supporters; but a due regard for our own interests compels us, to prevent a loss to ourselves, again to make a change by discontinuing the publication of the Local Courts' Gazette
