Our saddles good, made of leather and wood. Make riders about with glee. Smooth and bright; strong but light. Those made by the "G. W. S. Company."

Our harness best, that stands the test. However severe it be. Construction strong; never wrong. Those coming from the "G. W. S. Company."

Our collars you know; they fit just so. And their quality, you'll agree, is no fake, like others make. For they're made by the "G. W. S. Company."

Our trunks and valises; the very best made. They'll suit you to a tee. Handsome, neat and can't be beat. Furnished only by the "G. W. S. Company."

Now dealers shrewd, please be subdued; And to this factory flee. Their saddlery sells, you're treated well. By this wondrous "G. W. S. Company."

Recent reports from Boston indicate an improvement in the wool market there. Demand is much better than it has been for a long time and there is a stronger undertone to the market. Holders, while willing to sell freely at current prices, will not make concessions of any kind and claim to be getting all the business they can handle.
