

NOTICE.

R. P. ISAACSON,

IN returning thanks to his numerous Friends and the Public generally, for the liberal support he has enjoyed from them during a period of 10 years, at his Old Stand (HOLLY'S), St. Francois Xavier Street, takes leave to inform them that he will REMOVE to

No. 9, GREAT ST. JAMES ST.,
(Three Doors East of the Post Office.)

At the ensuing May, at which place, from having greater and better accommodation, he trusts to receive the continuance of their support. His Larder, as usual, will comprise the best JOINTS, STEAKS, and CHOPS the Market will afford, with every delicacy that can be procured in season. His WINES and LIQUORS, he flatters himself from the long experience the public have had of his determination of keeping only the very best, it would be useless for him to remark upon.

In conclusion, he assures the public, that the same desire to merit their support which he has hitherto shown, will be continued.

HUNT'S

MERCHANTS' MAGAZINE,
And Commercial Review.

BY FREEMAN HUNT, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.
PUBLISHED MONTHLY.
AT 112 FULTON-STREET, NEW-YORK.
At Five Dollars per annum, in Advance.

THE "MERCHANTS' MAGAZINE AND COMMERCIAL REVIEW" will continue to include in its design every subject connected with Commerce, Manufactures, and Political Economy, as—Commercial Legislation, Commercial History and Geography; Mercantile Biography. Essays from the ablest pens on the leading topics of the day, relating to Commercial Affairs; Descriptive, Statistical, and Historical Accounts of the various commodities which form the subject of Mercantile Transactions; Port Charges, Tariffs, Customs and Commercial Regulations; Treaties, Customs and Commercial Regulations and the different countries of the world with which we have intercourse, including their Physical Character, Population, Products, Exports, Imports, Seaports, Harbours, Weights, Measures, Finance and Banking Associations; Literature connected with Commerce, embracing Fisheries, Incorporated Companies, Railroads, Canals, Steamboats, Docks, Post Offices, &c.; Principles of Commerce, Finance and Banking, with Practical and Historical Details and Illustrations; Commercial Law and Mercantile Law Reports, and Decisions of Courts in the United States and Europe, including Insurance, Partnership, Prizes, and Agent, Bills of Exchange, Sale, Guaranty, Bankruptcy, Shipping and Navigation, &c. and whatever else shall tend to develop the resources of the country and the world, and illustrate the various topics bearing upon commerce and Commercial Literature, and we may venture to say that no work heretofore published, embraces in its pages so large an amount of information on all these subjects, as the fourteen volumes now completed.

Our means of enhancing the value of "The Merchants' Magazine and Commercial Review" are constantly increasing; and, with new sources of information, an extending correspondence abroad, and other facilities which seven years' devotion to a single object have enabled us to make available, we shall be able to render the work a perfect medium for the Merchant and Manufacturer, as well as to the Statesman and Political Economist, and indeed, all who desire information on the multifarious operations of business life.
