AFFAIRS IN IRELAND. .727-07 - -----

Concluded from First page.

Government reporters attended the second performance of Dion Boucicault's revamped Irish play "The O'Dowd," at the Adelphi Theatre last evening, and watched the elec-tion scene narrowly, and took full notes of the speechiirom the hustings delivered by one of the characters. The audience was fully as large and quite as much mixed politically as on the opening night, but there was no such marked expressions of political feeling as on that occasion. It is rumored that the Lord Chamberlain, after the official reporters have made their report, will exercise his supervisory authority over dramatic performances Mr. Brennau, the Secretary, Mr. Jas. Redpath, and order "The O'Dowd" to be taken off the Mr. Ketter, Mr. Boyton, Mr. Sheridan, Mr. stage.

London, Oct. 24,-At a land meeting in Drocheda yesterday, Mr. Sexton delivered an oration. Great preparations have been made in Galway for the reception of Parnell. The St. James brewery, in Kilkenny, has been destroyed by fire. DUBLIN, Oct. 24.-Mr. O'Donnell has joined the Land League, and in consequence will be prosecuted.

DUBLIN, Oct. 24.—The tenants of Mr. King Harman, ex-M. P. for the County Sligo, and of other landlords, have received notices not to pay full rents, under penalty of being shot.

A great land meeting was held at Galway to-day, at which Mr. Parnell spoke. In his speech, Mr. Parnell violently attacked the Government, and stigmatized Mr. Forster as a hypocrite. He said that he refused any longer to deprecate outrages which did not exist, and also that he scorned any prosecution by the Government.

DUBLIN, October 25.-All of the speeches made at Galway to-day were unusually violent. Mr. Mathew Harris virtually advocated the shooting of landlords, and de-nounced some of them by name. The chairman of the meeting protested against violent language.

Loxpon. Oct. 23.—The indictment of the Land Leaguers is by far the largest political document of the kind in this country. It is even longer than the famous monster indictment of O'Connell.

Herbert Gladstone, son of the Prime Minister, in a speech at Leeds indicated if the indictment of the Irish Land Leaguers by the Government should fail of its intended effect, the Government will adopt strong measures of coercion, and resort to extremities, which it is now doing its best to avoid. Mr. Gladstone is supposed to have spoken authoritatively, and the speech has caused a great deal of excitement in Ireland.

A soldier was discovered last night in Mavo drilling the peasantry in the military exercises which are imposed on fresh recruits for the British army. The object was evidently to form a peasantry militia capable of offering an organized resistance to British troops. The soldier was immediately arrested. It has not become known yet under whose orders he was acting, and the matter will be investigated.

NEW YORK, October 25.—A London special says the Post Office in Manchester is in flames, and will be destroyed. All telegraphic communication with London is now (12.15 a.m.) suspended. Great alarm is felt in London, as there are plain indications that the fire was set by incendiaries, and it is believed by many persons that this indicates an intention to organize disturbances in England in aid of the Land League in Ireland. Two an authority which is undoubted. Mr. Gladstone. The statement is however discredited. Another despatch says the statement that is informed on the best authority that Mr. Forster, Chief Secretary for Iteland, swore an information to-day charging a number of prominent members of the Land League with conspiracy, and that application for their arrest will be made in the courts early next week. The following are the gentlemen selected for prosecution :--- Mr. Charles Stewart Parnell, M.P., Mr. Joseph Biggar, M.P., Mr. Arthur O'Connor, M.P., Mr. J. J. O'Kelly, M.P., Mr. O'Sullivan, M.P., Mr. J. D. Sullivan, M.P., Mr. Egan, Treasurer of the Land League, Daly, a journalist, Mr. Harrington, a journalist, and Mr. Tully, a journalist.

New York, October 26 .- The World's London special says Thomas P. O'Comor. Mr. Parnell's principal lieutenant in and out of Parliament, telegraphs, if the Government proceeds with the actions, numerous murders and other agrarian outrages must be expected. The popular feeling is beyond all question most deeply excited, and the gravest apprehensions are felt on all sides. London is filled with the gravest rumors.

It is said the first blow struck by the Government at the agitators will be the signal for tremendous meetings of lrishmen throughout the country. The prosecution of the Land Leaguers will also be followed by the establishment, both in England and Scotland, of branches of the Land League on a basis similar to that of the Home Rule movement in Ireland, and by a concerted demand for the confederation of the three kiugdoms in place of the existing union.

TORONTO, Oct. 26 .- The following is a special cable to the Globe : London, Oct 25, I leave on the authority of a member of the Government that the very highest importance is attached to the grave intelligence received to-day from Ireland. Mr. Parnell and his friends, assembled in private council, have resolved to discard the policy of exhorting the people to keep the peace. The moment the Land Leaguers are proceeded against, the whole West and South of Ireland will become the scene of the gravest events. There was a meeting of the Cabinet to-day.

London, October 26.-Later advices from Cape Town confirm the alarming news received yesterday announcing that other tribes have joined the Basutos in open revolt against the Colonial Government. The natives beyond Pieter Maritzburg, the capital of Vatal, situated fifty miles from Port Natal, have made an attack on the white residents and such natives as remained faithful to the Cape Government, burning buildings, pillag. ing, and outraging the women. The most horrible atrocities are reported, and the insurgents are complete masters of the situation. The colonial authorities are in need of immediate assistance and unless reinforcements can reach them at once the situation of the lfttle handful of men, commanded by Colonel Clark, is considered helpless. A later despatch sent by the Union Steamship Company's Durban agent states that all communication between Durban and Cape Colony has been cut off, the Basutos having cut the wires.

Prices for winter apples are now quoted at $1.75 to 1.90; extra choice qualities, including Baldwins and Russetts, bring $2, in small lots. A lot of 1,500 barrels of choice winter fruitsold, to arrive, at $1.972; a car load of good assorted apples sold at $1.75, and another at $1.80, There are no strictly fall apples in the market, and there is no demand for them; a mixed lot of fall and winter sold this week at $1.60 for a carload. Almeria Grapes are scarce, only about 120 barrels arriving per the last vessel; there is a good demand for them, at $6 per barrel. Jamaica Oranges also in good request, quoted at $5 per box , r $10 per barrel. Lemonsa lot of 300 cases arrived here yesterday from Malaga, and the arrival of another shipment by direct steamer is reported. They are selling at $4.50 to 5 per case; extra large cases are held at $7.50. Cranberries are in good supply, and meet with a fair demand at $7 to 7.50. Sweet Potatoes in good request at

A few skunk skins have already been offered Allan's Corners, were shipped by the Quebec in this market, and about 75c has been realized for No. 1; average qualities would likely bring 40c to 50c. As yet there are no other kinds offering, to speak of, but mink will sell at low figures, owing to the entire neglect of Charles. the manufactured article. Fall musk rats will probably bring from 8c to 10c. Owing to the present troubles in Turkey and Greece skins are worth $10 to 11. As previously stated, however, no considerable quantities of raw furs will be bought until some time in November, and until then quotations cannot be established.

LEATHER .-- Compared with the corresponding period of last year the leather trade is certainly not active, and dealers have been somewhat disappointed. There is a moderate demand, however, and a fair average business has been done during the week. An increased demand has been experienced siuce Monday last, and sales of medium-weight upper, for sorting-up orders, have been made at our quotations. Sole leather has been in fair request, at firm prices; the supply of No. 2 B. A. is short, but stocks of No. 1 are reported sufficiently large. Harness is in good demand, but stocks are rather light. Slaughter is easier, large sales of No. 1 having been reported at our inside tigure, 27c, whereas 28c was the lowest price quoted previously for prime stock. Sales generally comprise small lots, but we hear of a sale of 20 tons. Splits for future delivery at a price not specified but within our quotations. The market for other descriptions rules quiet, with prices steady and unchanged.

WHOLESALE PROVISION MARKET. The provision trade is not active, still there is a very fair movement in most lines, producers showing a greater willingness to market their goods, now that navigation is drawing near the close. Telegrams were re-ceived from all parts of the country to-day from fruit growers anxious to dispose of their stock, the cold weather awakening them into activity. One firm here received 1,100 barrels alone by bost and all shippers of produce are unusually Lusy. An order for apples at the rate of 100 bairels per week is being filled for an Aberdean firm. Sales of fine winter stock took place to-day at $1.90 to $2.25 which is a slight advance on former been parted with at $1.00 and $1.75. A consignment of Janaica oranges received

Ireland arc assuming a more serious aspect every day. In Dublin the excitement among the Parnellites and other disaffected Irish over the proposed prosecution for conspiracy of some of the leading members of the Land League is intense. Such extreme precautions are being taken to keep the nature of the informations secret that the clerk who is cunying them is kept under strict surveilance. Land Leaguers think there will be bad work 28 soon as the arrests are made:

LONDON, October 25 .- Mr. Harris, one of the speakers at the and meeting at Galway yesterday, asked whether It were better that one bad man be shot or a hundred families driven from Ireland, and said that after witinessing eviction of farmers he had resolved that it the farmers shot the landlords like "ides he would nover say a word against partiant of the section of the secti then proceeded to denout 'ce an agent by name, but was mildly rebuked by" the chairman of the meeting.

The Times, in a leading site "le this morn-ing, summarized Parnell's arge "nent in his speech yesterday at Galway, as me ning that crime and outrage are justified by the e determination of the Government to keep the , veace and the refusal of the House of Lords to p 188 the Compensation for Disturbance in Ireland bill, and says :- " It is impossible to mistake } the meaning of such argument or the purpose of the man who uses it. The condition of Ireland and the conduct of the men who are criminally misleading the people, call for instant attention." QUEENSTOWN, October 25.-Mr. Parnell, speaking at a banquet at Galway, said :--" I feel convinced that if ever you call upon your countryment in America for help, and show them that there is a fair chance of success, you will have their trained and organized assistance for breaking the British yoke."

DUBLIN, October 25 .- The rumors which have been in circulation for the past few days that the Government intended to transfer the legal proceedings against the Par-nellites to London, has caused great consternation among the Land Lesguers, who had counted upon the prosecution and possible imprisonment of the leaders in Ireland, and prepared a somewhat elaborate programme of agitation based upon it. The rumor, however, proves to be without foundation. The prosecutions will proceed in Ireland. The Irish officers have concluded preparing the case, and on Saturday next eight magistrates and numerous inspectors will be called as witnesses. The prosecutions are to be rigidly conducted, but if for any reason they should fail, it is understood that the Government, will call upon Parliament to pass special repressive measures to regulate affairs in Ireland and to slop the incendiary acts and speeches of the Land Leaguers.

LONDON, October 26: -It is reported that Mr. Shaw will retire from the Land Commission in consequence of threatened prosecutions of the members of the Land League. LONDON, October 26 .- The Government reporter was refused admission to the banquet given to Parnell and O'Connor at Galway yesterday.

BEAUMARNOIS, 23rd October, 1880 .- In the Court of Queen's Bench, on the 23rd of Octoher, under the presidency of His Honor Mr. Justice Belauger, the case against Messrs. Whittaker and Barry, of the Cotton Company at Valleyfield, for feloniously shooting with intent to murder, were called. These cases arose out of the strike in May last at the cotton mills. Mr. J. K. MONTBEAL

The Annual General meeting of this Company was held on the 11th inst., the Hon. J. L. Beaudry having presided.

The Directors' report was most favorable, there being few fres, and the assessment being set down at 11 per cent. of a decline in prices for eottons, or other

This happy result must be attributed not only to the administration, but also to the abundance manufactured goods. Remittances are quite satisfactory, and November is expected to be, of water and to the good organization of the Fire a very good month in this respect.
