A., though the last named, being away on the Skeena expedition, of course were not represented. The ranges were 200, 400 and 500 yards, 5 shots being fired at each. Victoria won a decided victory, the scores being:

Victoria 495
New Westminster 401

The Chapleau Challenge Cup (to be won twice) accompanied the first cash prize in the next match, at 200, 400 and 500 yards, five shots:

The first of these received also the D. R. A. silver medal and the gold badge of the B. C. association; and the second received the silver badge of the B. C. association. The five highest efficient active militiamen in the grand aggregate, desiring to attend the D. R. A. meeting at Ottawa, will constitute the team to represent the province there.

The Governor-General's medals were awarded for the aggregates made by militiamen at 500 and 600 yards in the 3rd, 5th and 8th competitions. The silver medal went to Sergt. Williams of the Garrison Artillery, and the bronze to Pte. Sharpe of the N. W. Rifles, each scoring 78 points. Sergt. J. C. Newbury, of the G. A., was third with 74.

The All-comers' match, for any rifle, became, under the changed conditions already mentioned, five shots in place of seven at 200, 500 and 600 yards. The prize winners were:

$10 Pte. J. Henley, V.R. 51	$2 Gr. C. J. Maclure, G.A. 48
