

the many new developments resulting from the 1992 World Exhibition and Olympic Games, Spain plans to liberalize market access for cable and satellite TV, switching and PABX equipment, and modems. Communications and informatics are a top priority for 1990-91. In 1988, the show attracted 355 exhibitors from 42 countries with 34 125 visitors. Seven Canadian companies reported on-site sales of $226 000 with 12-month projected sales of $3.94 million.

SWISSDATA '90 (Information Booth)

Basle, Switzerland – September 4-8, 1990

Information Processing

Held every two years with FABRITEC, principal exhibits include hardware, software, services, training and associations, planning the workplace and accessories.

SMAU (National Stand)

Milan, Italy – October 4-8, 1990

Office Automation Systems and Supplies

This will be Canada's fourth participation in this annual international exhibition for office informatics, telematics and communications systems, office machines and furnishings. In 1989, nine Canadian firms attended SMAU, reporting on-site