

REGIONAL ISSUES

Iraq

- Canadian policy has always been dominated by two equally important factors: our focus on the humanitarian situation, and our ongoing concern regarding security and disarmament.
- We are pleased to learn that efforts to target sanctions more accurately are continuing.
- The purpose of the proposals under review would be to improve the difficult situation of the Iraqi people, while preventing rearmament by Iraq.