FEDERAL-PROVINCIAL PROGRAM FOR DEVELOPMENT OF BILINGUALISM IN EDUCATION

Question No. 1,463-Mr. Serré:

Under the federal-provincial program for the development of bilingualism in education (a) what amount was granted to date to the Province of Ontario (b) what amount was granted to date to the regional school board in Sudbury and which schools and institutions benefited from this program and what amount was granted to each?

[Translation]

Hon. Gérard Pelletier (Secretary of State): (a) To date, the province of Ontario has received $14,262,326.59 under the federal-provincial programme for the development of bilingualism in education. (b) Under this programme funds are paid directly to the provincial governments who, in turn, assume the responsibility for allocating these moneys to their educational institutions and school boards. Requests for information as to the allocation of funds to a specific institution or local school board should therefore be directed to the provincial Department of Education concerned.
