

has needed to her sons who fell in the war and in this respect can bear comparison with any part of the Empire

But in this matter of the Church we should all like to feel that she has joined with us.

All I ask you to do is to use your influence with those who served and with their relatives to help us in what to our friends is indeed an Imperial object

With the kindest remembrance of service together

Believe me always

Yours sincerely
