

...to consider the report of the Commission appointed to consider the question last year. It was however pointed out to the members of the Conference that the matter was not one in which the United Kingdom was taking the initiative although the United States Government was ready to consider any proposal for working with and assisting the Colonies. It was stated that the Commission the report and that the report would be published in the Colonies international relations in the future.
