

TENTH EVENING.

Hazel Reads an Allegory, 64

ELEVENTH EVENING.

Opera—Acting, and Music, 75

TWELFTH EVENING.

Herr Schnabel Enlivens the Proceedings, 80

THIRTEENTH EVENING.

Discussion on Musical Memory—Dr. Goodman Tells a Story—
Crabbe Tells Another, 84

FOURTEENTH EVENING.

An Attack on Tenth rate Musicians, and a Rhapsody on Genius by Crabbe, 99

FIFTEENTH EVENING.

Parks Astonishes the Club with a Satirical Poem, 106

SIXTEENTH EVENING.

Mr. Bullyer and Parks' Friend, "Fred," Air their Views, . . . 111

SEVENTEENTH EVENING.

Dalton Reads a Strange Story, 116

EIGHTEENTH EVENING.

A Discussion on General Musical Taste, and on International
Copyright, 123

NINETEENTH EVENING.

Dr. Goodman Tells a Story about a Stradivarius Violin, . . . 133