

PAGE

124. ³ il se sentit...caractère.] He felt himself distrustful of his character.
⁴ les meubles...solidité.] The bulky furniture made up but imperfectly for their coarse, i.e. clumsy, appearance by their excessive solidity.
⁵ les commodités de détail.] Minor conveniences or comforts.
125. ¹ dressé à demeure.] Permanently laid.
² à laquelle...exclamation.] Which was answered by a single word or an exclamation.
³ des pièges à loup.] Wolf-traps.
⁴ un croc de garde-manger.] A larder hook.
⁵ grattait...sanglantes.] Was scraping a staved cask or pail, of which the bloodstained scrapings.
126. ¹ je ne sais...d'habitudes.] I know not what habitual coarseness.
² rompu et transi.] Knocked up and chilled, i.e. benumbed with cold.
127. ¹ J'avais beau...raisonnement.] In vain I submitted my impressions to reasoning.
² département du Loiret.] The department of the Loiret, situated in the centre of France.
³ des taillis...culture.] At some coppice-ground newly, i.e. lately, brought under cultivation.
⁴ le défrichement.] The clearing, i.e. the mode of clearing.
⁵ Les Turreau.] The Turreau family—the Turreaus.
⁶ ça ne...boire.] They merely knew how to work the ground, i.e. till the land, kill game, and drink.
⁷ ça tourne...voyez-vous.] They always turn to wild beasts, you see, i.e. they always become ferocious.
128. ¹ tous ces jours-ci.] All these past days, i.e. for the last few days.
² à notre insu...conduite.] Unknown to us, the grounds of our opinions and the rules of our conduct.
³ C'est à notre sagesse.] It is for our wisdom.
⁴ est un...province.] Is an old historical chart, or record, coming from the most celebrated abbey of my native province.
⁵ Déroulé avec complaisance.] Unrolled with satisfaction (to myself).
⁶ rongée de mites.] Eaten by mites, i.e. worm-eaten.