New and Cheap Issue of that Highly Popular and Favourite Work,

LIBRARY OF ENTERTAINING KNOWLEDGE.

This work is intended to combine the two objects of INSTRUCTION and AMUSEMENT, comprising as much entertaining matter as can be given along with useful knowledge, and as much knowledge as can be conveyed in an amusing form.

Independent of the great variety which these volumes offer, there is, perhaps, no SIMILAR SERIES OF WORKS which is so well calculated for ALL CLASSES. The rich and the poor, the LEARNED and the UNLEARNED, will find an unceasing source of instruction and amusement.

Each Volume, containing nearly 500 pages handsomely printed, 12mo., and handsomely illustrated with Cuts, Bound and Gilt, for only TWO SHILLINGS THREEPENCE each Volume. The following have already appeared:—

The Backwoods of Canada and Oregon Territory, with a Map of the Territory. 22 Illustrations.

THE OREGON TERRITORY Separately, with the Map, price Threepence.

Planché's (J. R.) British Costume, a complete History of the Dress of the Inhabitants of the British Islands. 136 Woodcuts.

The Secret Societies of the Middle Ages. The Assassins—The KNIGHTS TEMPLARS—and SECRET TRIBUNALS OF WEST-PHALIA. With Illustrations.

Belzoni's (E. W.) Account of the Manners and Customs of the MODERN EGYPTIANS. 107 Woodcuts, 2 vols. for 4s. 6d.

His work is a record of unquestionable value, containing everything respecting the manners and customs of the Egyptians that could be desired."—Quarterly Review.

Impeii, as it was and as it is; its Public and Private Buildings. 301 Illustrations. 2 vols. 4s. 6d.

IMPEII, the connecting Link between the Ancient and Modern World, almost miraculous alike in its destruction in the year 79, and in its rediscovery in 1755, awakens feelings of curiosity in the breast of every one who has heard of its extraordinary fate.

The remaining Volumes of the Series will appear Monthly; but to Purchasers who would prefer taking the whole Work at once, the price will be made more moderate still, viz., less than TWO SHILLINGS each Volume.

LIBRARY OF ENTERTAINING KNOWLEDGE,

consists of Two Thousand Illustrations, 43 vols. 12mo., elegantly bound in Cloth, full gilt backs (published at 9l. 13s. 6d.), for 4l. 4s.—1830-40.

"This is a cheap and elegant library of instruction and amusement."
