PETER THE GREAT LEADING SPEED SIRE

By the performances this season of Santos Maid, 2:08 1/4, and Peter McCormick, 2:08 1/4, both newcomers in the 2:10 list, Peter the Great, 2:07 1/2, supplants McKinley, 2:11 1/4, as the leading sire of trotters of extreme speed. At the season's end, however, they were tied for first honors, each having fourteen in the list. Both sires are owned by New York breeders. McKinley being the property of William Simpson, who paid $30,000 for him, while Peter the Great belongs to W. E. D. Stokes. He is now eighteen years old. Unlike most of the other great sires of the present day he has no Wilkes or Electioneer blood in his veins, but traces back in the direct male line to Rydsky's Hambletonian third, Pilot Medium and Happy Medium, the sire of Nancy Hanks, 2:04.

Peter McCormick, the twelfth new 2:10 trotter of the year, is a five-year-old brown stallion, by Peter the Great, 2:07 1/2, out of Pearl Coll, by Cecil W. 2:28 1/2, son of Gambetta Wilkes, 2:19 1/2. He was bred by H. K. Green, of Mount Sterling, Ky., and brought out last season, trotting fifteen races in the Middle West and gaining a record of 2:11 1/4 in the final start at Lexington, where he defeated Mack's Mack, 2:09 1/4, and other fast ones. ## IT COMES BUT ONCE A YEAR WYATT LEE GOT HIS IN STYLE

Leafs Bumped Newark Southpaw Hard and Won Last of Series 7 to 1—Lush Knocked Unconscious by Hard Hit Ball—Dalton Had Perfect Day With the Willow.

There was much humidity in the air yesterday, and this can be blamed for the fact that the Leafs' bats were going "batty" in the Island Stadium. The sun blazed down on the ball park and the sweat bubbled out of the hired workers until the local square all went stark mad. It has been the custom of the Kelley-McCaffery tribe to go along without saying a word and not doing much when a gentleman named Wyatt Lee, born sometime in the 18th century, makes his place on the field for the Leafs, but yesterday the heat got to them. They banged poor old Wyatt in a most unmerciful fashion, and the result of the damage done to Lee is summed up in the 7 to 1 victory for Toronto. The heat must have also affected the faithful line round the field, for they kept up a running fire of comments at the Newark portender, and it was the craziest crowd you ever set eyes on in that eighth session. It was the most joyful occasion of the season, and you couldn't blame a real fan for throwing a few fits. It is just once a year that the fans get a chance to tell it to Wyatt, and they know how to do it when the opportunity comes. What might have been a fatal accident occurred when Collins, the first man up in the second inning, drove a liner to the Newark pitcher, and it was the craziest thing that ever happened on the field. He was flung into the air, and he landed on his back, and he was rolling down the hill, and he was dead to the world. It took some few minutes to revive him, and then he had to be taken to the hospital. He was unable to get his pitching arm, and he was unable to leave the grounds in an hour, and he seemed worse for his experience.

KANE'S TIMELY HIT WINS FOR RED SOX

Joe Lill was charitable in several spots, and it was only the fine work by Coose which kept the score down. Coose threw out five runners at tempting to steal second. Score:
