OVERCOAT DAY

Is Every Day Now

Do you find it hard to decide where to go for your Overcoat?

With every merchant shouting from the house tops the word Bargain, and offering every inducement under the sun, and then some, to get your money, it must be hard for you to make up your mind just where will be the best place to buy your new Winter Top Coat. There is one thing sure, you can't buy good fabrics for a song today, and there are lots of garments being sold having a boosted value that must surely hit back later on when their real character is exposed in the wear and test of time.

We select our fabrics with a view to wear

Then we make and tailor them the best we know how, put plenty of snap and go into them, price them so that we can look every man squarely in the eye, and tell him he is getting full honest value for every dollar, standing pat on the home plate waiting to give you back your money if we have failed in any one particular. Does that sound good to you? No matter what your price is we can meet it, from $7.50 up to $40.00. We have coats here that defy any blizzard that ever blew, made from materials that we control. Every man who drives a motor should see these coats.

"Buy it now."

Men of Seventy-Sixth Will Be Treated to Hot Meals in Private Homes

HAMILTON, Nov. 3 .- The enthusiasm of the citizens of this city has in no way lessened when it comes to giving the boys in uniform a fitting welcome, even tho they have witnessed a battalion pass thru the city every day for the past week. Yesterday the isual thousands lined the streets and cheered the sordiers of the 83rd Bat-talion, commanded by Lt.-Col. Peliatt, who, with rull marching equipment, arrived at 3.45 o clock from Grimsby. They stanted from there at 7.45 in the morning. Following the policy laid down by the board of education, all the school children were dismissed early in the afternoon, so as to permit of their taking part in the welcome. Led by Prof. James Johnson, they greeted the soldiers with patriotic of-

Recruiting is Light.

A slight decrease in the numbe recruits was reported last night at the armories. At the 91st Highlanders' headquarters 20 recruits were examined and accepted, while 11 were taken on by the 13th Royal Regiment. Some of these men will go to the 86th Hamilton Machine Gun Battalion, which is still about 100 men short, while the others will be drafted into the new battalion.

A hot dinner on Sunday for every soldier of the 76th Battalion, which will be stationed in this city over Sunday, is the idea of the Camadian Club, which has done such worthy work since the beginning of the war. The idea is for every citizen to entertain two or more soldiers, it being thought that one soldier at a strange table would feel embarrassed, but perfectly content if he had a mate to help film out. All those who desire to have soldiers as their guests on Sunday will only need to go to the armories and take their guests in tow.

The board of control sanctioned the idea and offered to aid the project as much as possible. The members of the Canadian Club of the 91st Regiment, under the command of Captain George Rutherford, have agreed to look after 300 soldiers, but there still remain 600 more to be dined. Those desiring to help are requested to telephone Harry Marsh, commissioner of industries, giving the number of soldiers they can accommodate. The executive of the Tiger Football Club has

NO COMPROMISE

Style and Finish Are Essential to Good Clothes Such as Hickey's Sell.

For the smart man of today to be well dressed, it means, first of all, that the material in his suit or overcoat must be of the best procurable, true and worthy; that the pattern is original and unique; that the pattern is original and unique; that the garment has been tailored by competent hands, and, above all, that the price has been named with a view of giving a high degree of value. A "compromise" should not be countenanced on the question of style and finish. The component parts that go to make the suit desired by the man of fashion are embodied in the garments offered this week by Hickey's, Yonge street, the experts in English haberdashery for men. A purchase from this firm is a guarantee of satisfaction in fit, fashion and fabric,
