Tommy Feltz meets Billy Allen in Hull next Thursday afternoon. The fight is booked for 15 rounds, with clean breaks.

ner. Bailey's Western Boy wore the extra rigging in Class C and they had a wonderful effect on him, as he paced like-a great horse thruout each of the three heats, which he won bandily.

Only two came out for the word in the fast class, Cora Mack, with Billy Robinson up, and William C, with Jimmy McDowell doing the teaming The mare was the favorite and won, but she was compelled to go three heats to get the money. William C, could not negotiate the turns very well, otherwise he no doubt would have been the winner.

The talent gave the bookmaker, Fred Slocum, a drubbing in the fast pace, making that worthy fold his pack and hit the trail for home. The summaries:
