OTTAWA, March 18.—Premier Greenway, dis-cussing the Manitobs question to night, said the Government had not initimated to him that a settlement had been arrived at although he had reason to believe negotiations were ad-vancing satisfactority. He said he did not see that he need romain here much longer, as the Government knew exactly his position. That he heither could nor would sceept anything lass than an absolute anyreader to the province of the right to build rullways. Understanding this the Government could settle the difficulty without him. There is one railway strike that the Cana-dian public can allord to support, and that is The World's strike against the scorptance of deadhead passes by our legislators. No legis-lator can be strictly independent who wears any corporation's collar, and none can be strictly honest who pockets mileage while traveling upon a pass. Nevertheless some man who do this are loud talkers for moral re-form.

Wallace put the questions. The witness near explained the importance of distinguishing be-tween different kinds of coal when discussing prices. There were a great many different kinds and the prices wirled from $1.60 to $6.50 a to as the Bridges. The kind generally referred to when coal was spoken of was store and nut size of anthracits. The whole anthracits trade is controlled by five leading transportition companies: (i) Philadelphis and Reeding, (2)
