

Easy to Take Easy to Operate

Are features peculiar to Hood's Pills. Small in size, tasteless, efficient, thorough. As one man said: "You never know you have taken a pill till it is all over." See C. I. Hood & Co., Proprietors, Lowell, Mass. The only pills to take with Hood's Castor Oil.

HEAVY SENTENCES.

Two Offenders Get Six Months Each for Vagrancy.

At the Police Court today the magistrate's attention was given to two offenders. The first was James Kelly, alias Hawkins. He has been remanded twice to enable the police authorities to inquire into his career. The charge opposite his name was vagrancy. He is an acquaintance of the pickpocket, who was up a short time ago. Kelly made a vigorous protestation of his innocence of the charge, and promised to get right out of town. Chief Williams explained that the prisoner was known at the Central Prison and several other places as Hawkins. The P. M. decided to give Kelly-Hawkins six months in the Central Prison.

Harriet Chrystler was the other case.

She has been in jail on remand for a week. She pleaded guilty to want to go to jail. The magistrate said it was only a question of whether to send her to the reformatory or the common jail. He finally sentenced her to six months in the common jail.

SERVICE OF PRAISE

St. James Church, South London - A Fine Programme.

The Service of Praise at St. James Church, South London, last night drew a large congregation, who enjoyed a programme of sacred music, rarely excelled in the church's history. The choir, under the direction of Mr. Vivian Reeve, acquitted themselves admirably and showed the effects of careful training. The solo parts were taken by Misses Raymond and Law, and Messrs. Phelps and Doggett.

Handel's "Angels, Ever Bright and Fair," was exquisitely rendered by Miss E. Stirling Case, and Miss H. J. Morey displayed a rich and cultivated voice in the "Slumber Song." Miss Morey is a daughter of Mr. J. H. Morey, who, some years ago, was connected with The Advertiser.

Mr. Reeve, the popular organist of St. James, has brought his choir to a high state of efficiency.

The collection went to the choir fund. A thoughtful address on "Praise and Thanksgiving" by Rev. W. Jeans, of Thorndale, was a feature of the evening.

LIVELY YOUNG LIBS.

No. 1 Ward - An Ovation to Mr. C. S. Hyman - Concert at the New Club Rooms.

The Young Liberals of No. 1 ward had a rousing meeting at their headquarters, 145 Horton street, last night, the rooms being crowded with Liberal enthusiasts. The programme was given by Charles S. Hyman, who caused a cyclone of cheers. He was given another ovation when he rose to deliver an address, characterized by his usual force and pluck.

Mr. F. G. Rumball presided and delivered an invigorating address. The report of the secretary, Mr. Fred Hillman, showed Liberalism to be flourishing in No. 1 ward, and that the corps of workers were ready for active service when the signal was given. Lively speeches were also made by Mr. U. A. Buchner, Ald. Farnell and Mr. P. H. Rumball, vice-president for the ward.

An interesting musical and literary programme was given by the following: Recitation, Bert Williams; guitar selection, C. Williamson; trio, H. Osborn, C. Williamson and C. Williamson; singing, H. Osborn; song, George Birmingham; song, Mr. Keough; song, J. O'Hara.

The meeting closed with cheers for the Queen, Premier Laurier, Sir Oliver Mowat and Charles S. Hyman.

LETTERS TO THE "ADVERTISER."

To the Editor of The Advertiser: Your informant respecting the contents of my letter to the board, by what he says and what he does not say, quite misrepresents it to my disadvantage. The encyclopedias, etc., are not on shelves in the reading room, but are in a side room, where no stranger would think of looking for them unless told of their locality. There is no notice I have seen directing readers to them.

I also asked that the leading papers of all the churches, etc., should be allowed a place, and named the Catholic Record, Christian Guardian, Presbyterian Review, Orange Sentinel, etc., and that the board should pass a resolution inviting all who might choose to do so to place their papers on the files of the reading room so that readers might know what is going on around them. A free library should be free. CALDER P. SIMPSON, London, Oct. 8.

Only 20c per pound. Pure Baking Powder, Anderson & Nelles' drug store.

IF 900 PEOPLE

out of 1,000 said a thing was best you'd believe it. Of course you would! Well, COTTAM'S Seed occupies just that unique position among bird-keepers. So, see that you get it, and

BE SURE "BART COTTAM & Co., London," is on each label, and patent Bird Brand, patent R.R. and Senator's Patent Holder, with Rouben Sharpey inside. Sold everywhere, i.e., Head COTTAM'S new illustrated "Book on Birds," price 20c; post free next 30 days for 12c and this ad.

A Fall Overcoat

Have you any intention of buying a new overcoat this fall? Perhaps you are a shabby and will not flush out another season's wear. We can show you some of the best Melons and Bangers ever shown in this city.

A.S. SLATER

Merchant Tailor, Corner Richmond and Carling Streets, ywt

BACK AT WORK

The Striking Operators All at Their Posts and Everything Running Smoothly.

This morning saw everything running smoothly on the C. P. R. The strikers have returned to work, and things in general have assumed their old-time appearance. Employees say there is now a perceptible advance in the freight and passenger traffic compared with that of the past few days. W. H. Sando, of Newbury, coming from Montreal this morning. He was one of the operators' committee, and says that things are practically settled. He says it is not a question of victory for either side, but a mere matter of arbitration. The telegraphers, he says, will now appoint a committee on each of the different divisions to confer with the assistant superintendents, who will sign the modified schedule. The telegraphers, he says, will now receive the same recognition as the other railway bodies.

CITY HALL JOTTINGS.

Nonconformist Calls on the Mayor - More Statute Labor Summonses - An Object of Charity.

The Board of Works meets tonight, and will take a whack at the sewerage plans. No. 2 committee, Board of Education, meets tonight. Inspector Bell intends to issue another batch of statute labor summonses. The presence of all offices on the same floor is much more convenient for city officials and facilitates business greatly.

The quarter's water rates are coming in.

The tax collectors will have a rest for a time.

Thomas Barry, 94 years of age, was one of Mayor Little's callers today. He wished admission to the Aged People's home, but was advised to return to his folks. The latter will cheerfully care for him, but the old man likes to go on a bit of a foot once in a while. For an octogenarian he is astonishingly active in body and mind. His eyes are strong and bright, and his hearing good. He has a powerful frame, though bent by age.

Phrases have been circulated, though respectable looking man, called on Inspector Bell today, asking him to eat, or twenty-four hours, and that his belongings were kept by a hotelkeeper because he could not pay for his board. Berranger had been all the way from Palmerston.

He was given a dinner ticket and 25 cents by Inspector Bell, and the scantly wage was secured for 25 cents. The hotelkeeper kindly reducing his bill by 25 cents, and the money was sent by Brantford. He is a carriage painter and is looking for work.

WORK AND WAGES

Settlement Between the Windsor Bricklayers and Their Boss.

Windsor, Oct. 8.-The striking bricklayers and masons have declared a truce. George A. Goodman, their employer, was obliged to put on all the Detroit masons he could find in order to get along with the stonework. The Windsor men having struck, but now that the stonework is completed, the men have returned to work. In order that they may go to work on the brick walls, the union being able to meet all the bricklayers likely to be wanted.

GAY WEDDINGS.

Marriage of Miss Dryden and Miss Temple at Toronto.

Toronto, Oct. 8.-Miss Emma Josephine Dryden, daughter of Hon. J. H. Dryden, Minister of Agriculture in Ontario, was wedded this morning to William Worsley McMaster, son of Mr. J. Shortt McMaster. Many citizens of Toronto witnessed the ceremony.

Toronto, Oct. 8.-Miss Temple, the eldest daughter of Dr. J. A. Temple, of this city, was married yesterday afternoon to J. Carter Troop, a sometime editor of the Journal of Commerce, of Montreal.

Montreal, Oct. 8.-Mr. Aime Geoffrion, advocate, son of Hon. C. A. Geoffrion, Q.C., Minister without portfolio, was married to the late Sir J. A. Dorion, Chief Justice of Quebec, is to be married on Tuesday, Nov. 3, at the archbishop's palace, to Miss Thibaudau, only daughter of Senator J. R. Thibaudau, sheriff of Montreal.

"MARCHING THROUGH GEORGIA."

Largely Increased Majority for the Democrats - Incident at a Bryan Meeting.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 8.-W. Y. Atkinson (Democrat) is re-elected as Governor by a majority of not less than 23,000, which is an increase of 6,000 over the party majority of two years ago. In the tenth district, which is the home of Thomas Watson, the Democratic majority has dropped from 8,000 to 2,800.

Hammond, Ind., Oct. 8.-Timbers giving way over a temporary stand erected over the fountain basin at Central Park, where William J. Bryan spoke last night, resulted in a panic, which several women were painfully injured and half a hundred drenched in chilly water. Six women are badly injured. The stand was crowded with women and children waiting to get a glimpse of the Presidential candidate. The physicians who attended the injured are of the opinion that no fatalities will result.

How to Cure Skin Diseases.

Simply apply "Swaine's Ointment." No internal medicine required. Cures tetter, eczema, itch, all eruptions on the face, hands, nose, etc., leaving the skin clear, white and healthy. The great healing and curative powers are possessed by no other remedy. Ask your druggist for "Swaine's Ointment." Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, wholesale agents.

A Month of Marriages.

Several Young Couples United in Holy Bonds.

Weddings Numerous This Month - October Surpassing June.

Brown October seems to be stripping leafy June of its laurels as the month of marriages. October of 1898 has been a matrimonial record-breaker. London West, in particular, has shown unusual enterprise, and in the past week of ten days it is said that eight of the most pleasant ceremonies have been performed.

GORMAN-MORAN.

Last evening the residence of Mr. J. H. Moran, corner Wellington and Hyman streets, was the scene of a very pretty event, the occasion being the marriage of his eldest daughter, Ella Winnett, to Mr. Arthur Gorman.

The contracting parties are both popular young Londoners. Mr. Gorman being the clever Linotype machinist of The Advertiser establishment, while the bride is well known as connected with Wellington Street Methodist Church and choir. The ceremony, which was performed at 8.30 by Rev. A. L. Russell, was witnessed by a large gathering of friends. The bride looked lovely in cream with pearl trimmings, and the regulation veil and orange blossoms. Miss Edith Winnett, the bridesmaid, was becomingly attired in white orrery over blue and pink muslin. Little maid of honor were in attendance. The groom was supported by Mr. A. H. Moran, flowers in profusion, and dispensed with, exquisite taste, adorned the house. The guests numbered about seventy, and included several from Toronto, Glenora and other outside places. After the ceremony the guests partook of an elegant evening repast at Hyman street.

A quiet yet pretty wedding took place in this city yesterday afternoon, when Hanna, only daughter of Mr. T. Stevens, of St. James, London West, was united in holy bonds to Mr. W. J. Miller, of this city. The bride was becomingly attired in a green cloth costume, and the groom in a blue suit. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride. There were about 40 guests present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Smith, and was attended by Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. J. Miller, brother of the groom. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Agnes Graham, who wore a light gray crepe, with blue silk trimmings. Both carried bouquets of roses. The bride was