Splinters Off City League Swatsticks

Perhaps old John McHugh wasn't present with his swat stick! Two doubles, a single, and a base on a flelder's choice.

Both Ecclestone and Costello conproted for three sacks apiece.

Perkins reached first three times out of four times up, but was nailed at second on two occasions.

O'Rourke was the busy kid. A hit, four purcuts and five assists. Not bal Moise, for the old man, eh?

Costello made an error which cost his team three sacks, and then turned around and knocked out a three bagger just to even up scores.

Thompson and Wilson each had four assists. The first named was the only one of the four pitchers to connect B. Healey, 2 b.

Wonder what hit Nig Jeffries? Two Heathfield, s. s. fumbles in one game for the dark one Lee, p. is "sumthin orful," besides it set a bad Kilgour, 1 b example for young brother Walter, Chantler, l. f. who monopolized the left garden.

Doc Sippi had more business than a striking barber at the second stopoff. Five assists and one putout besides a hit. My!

Umpire Smith was a trifle off-color on base decisions, and some heartless fan remarked that he was in a hurry to get back to St. Thomas.

Pop Stein almost made a hit. The pill got there before he did though and the official scorer was compelled to make an erasure. How's that Mac?
