PLUGGED COINS

To Redeem Them Would Encourage

Mutilation, Says Mr. Fielding. Ottawa, June 12.-The first official intimation which the House had of the resignation of Mr. A. B. Ingram was today when on motion of the Prime Minister the former member for East Elgin was replaced by other members on several of the committees of the House. Mr. Brodeur was named as successor to Mrr. Fitzpatrick on the election laws committee.

Mr. Fielding introduced a bill to enable the finance department to redeem worn silver coins. Mr. Henderson asked what the Government would do in the matter of plugged coins, which were innocently accepted by people and refused at the banks. Mr. Fielding replied that it was not intended to provide for the redemption of such coins, as they came within the category of mutilated coins. To Shuttle, the London convict whose mutilate coins was a criminal offense, and it would not do for the Government to afford an incentive to a crim ing crooks to murder his wife, was Mr. Fielding felt sorry for those who discovered in Winnipeg yesterday were victimized by this crime, indeed

(Laughter.) The bill was read a first time. ENDS LIFE IN RIVER

Windsor, June 12 .- A colored porter. by the name of "Doc" Connors, was found in the river today and is supposed to have committed suicide. A few weeks ago he was arrested for trying to burn his house down. The police an examination as to his sanity. He was released a couple of weeks ago. but disappeared. The authorites are convinced that he dropped into the river to end his life by drowing.
