Players Brakewood, Adams, Hill, Waring, Oscar, Baillie, Moore, Dillon, Morgan and Paulter are requested to attend. Any other players who would like to try out with a speedy junior league team, the Carlton League will be glad to hear from them. The management of Mr. H. Tremble and a season of many successes is looked forward to. Any team wishing to join a juvenile league (average age 15 years), is asked to communicate with John O'Connor, 70 Lombard-street.

Sporting Notes.
Jack O'Brien is preparing for his fight with Fletcher down at Tom Sharkey's chicken ranch, Sheephead Bay. They meet in Philadelphia to-morrow night.

Four more horses arrived at Woodbine from Normandy to-day, the string of William Shields. They were: W. I. Hinch, Occi-dental, Al Herford and Mary Hall.

The yacht Alleen II. has been bought by Norman Goodenough by A. J. Phil-lips and James Watt and will be sailed in the R.C.Y.C. fleet the coming season.

The referee gave Owen Moran of Eng-land the decision at the conclusion of a 12-round bout with "Tommy" Murphy, New York at Boston Wednesday night.

For the Beef and Greens.
PRESBOTT, March 24.—The final curl-ing game of the season for the beef and greens, at which will be presented the J. P. Wiser, E. W. Wicks and T. R. Melville cups, was played last night at the local rink, and wound up in a blaze of glory with the following results:

Argonaut Annual Meeting Friday.
The annual meeting of the Argonaut Rowing Club will be held at the summer clubhouse on Friday, March 26, at 8 p.m.

McFarland Defeats Cross.
NEW YORK, March 24.—Packey McFarland, the Chicago lightweight boxer, met and defeated Leach Cross of this city at the Madison Square Garden Athletic Club to-night. The boys weighed in at 135 pounds. In the majority of rounds McFarland had a decided advantage over the local man. They fought fiercely during the last three rounds and at the final clang of the bell both were struggling all over the ring, each trying to put over a knockout.

Paper Champion Again Falls.
BALTIMORE, Md., March 24.—Yasuf Mahmood failed to-night in his undertak-ing to throw Gus Schoenfeld, "Americus," the two-time world champion, and was unable to throw Schoenfeld at all within the time limit.
