DISMISSAL ASKED OF RADIAL APPEAL

Privy Council Requested by Toronto Counsel to Find for City.

LIKE OTHERS REFUSED
Railway's Application Resembles Two That Previously Failed.

Canadian Associated Press Cable.
LONDON, July 28.—The privy council is continuing the hearing today of the Toronto and York Radial appeal.

Clauden, K.C., opening the case for the corporation, said the company applied to the Ontario Municipal Board for approval of certain plans showing the deviations from their line on Yonge street.

The corporation contested their right to execute the work, but later the board made the order approving the plans with slight variations.

Counsel agreed with what had been said on behalf of the appellants as to the powers the company had acquired, but he argued none of them ousted the right of the corporation to grant or refuse a license of the proposed change.

The ostensible purpose of the appeal was to provide new terminal facilities rendered necessary by the construction of the subway by the C.P.R. across Yonge street.

It turned out, however, that the real object was to substitute the line subject to no franchise stipulation for that portion of the company in question where the franchise was about to expire.

The supreme court upholding the contention of the corporation for the order was made without jurisdiction, and expressed the opinion that the railway was bound to show they had obtained municipal approval.

Frequently interrupted.
The learned counsel, who was frequently interrupted by Lord Shaw, Atkinson and Parnor, who seemed greatly interested, went on to show that the grounds for the appeal were to come to their decision were grounds which had met with the approval of this very board in recently decided cases where a similar point was raised for consideration.

This present application was similar in all essential features to two former applications made by the company which had been refused.

Lord Haldane asked what was the real objection the respondents had to the order. Clauden replied that one ground was the character of the surrounding motives of the company in again making an application. Then there was the objection to the far-reaching nature of the order itself and practical inconvenience from the standpoint of pedestrians crossing the sidewalk by cars.

That objection, said counsel, couldn't be dismissed as trifling. "The importance is apparent," he quoted Justice Hodgins as saying, and on these grounds he asked for dismissal of the appeal.

G. R. Gentry, K.C., was afterwards heard. Lord Haldane said they would consider their decision.

The manifesto probably will be along lines similar to the platform recently issued by one of the branch organizations of the Free Trade Union, which says:

before the war are taking advantage of the present situation to revive the agitation. To raise revenue now or hereafter by imposing a general tariff on imports is open to the same objections as before the war. It would create vested interests, cost a large sum to collect and unjustly fall upon the taxpayers in an inverse ratio to their inability to pay. If direct state action proves necessary to overcome the difficulties connected with our economic dependence, we believe that subsidies, or in some cases state ownership, would be preferable to protective tariffs.

FRENZIED APPEAL IS MADE BY KAISER

"Everything is at Stake," He Says in Message to Masses.

BITTER TOWARD BRITISH
"Ice-Cold Haberdashers on the Thames," is Description Given.

LONDON, July 28.—A letter from Kaiser William passionately appealing to the German people to stand firm and unwavering, no matter how the tide of battle flows, has been printed in all the German papers. The letter was circulated by the semi-official Wolff News Agency. Dated from the front in the west, the letter says in part:

"Should we be victorious there is threatening a war after the war, when the best energies and power of the nation, now expressed by its joy in arms, shall be taxed to the utmost to meet raw force, hatred and calumny."

"Everything is at stake. The ice-cold haberdashers on the Thames yearn for our holiest things. The health and life of our women and our children are menaced. Even neutrals must bear hunger."
