Trade in butcher cattle at the Union Stock Yards continued on the slow side yesterday, the reason being given as the scarcity of good killers. There was only a fair supply of fresh cattle on hand when the market opened, and this helped the commission men to get rid of some held-overs. About 600 head of cattle were unloaded later on, but the majority of these were held over until today. One of the best carloads of heavy steers ever seen on the market arrived, consigned to Sparkhall & Armstrong, the twenty cattle averaging 1300 lbs. Armsurs of Chicago were the buyers, at $12.5.

Butcher cattle at 10c were few and far between. Medium to good killers were only a fair offering, but light, common butchers were plentiful; and, on the whole, the values were steady with Tuesday's. IDEAL FACTORY SITE at Orillia, three to fire acres, approximately 60,000 square feet floor space, brick and wooden buildings, railway siding, three railways. Tenders received to October 19. whole, the values were steady with Tuesday's.

There was a fair trade for lambs, but the buyers succeeded in taking off another 25c, the best selling at $16.50 to $16.75, and in a few cases the $17 level was reached. Sheep and calves proved a good, steady trade.

Hog quotations returned to Monday's level of $18.75, fed and watered. The market closed strong.

The receipts were 127 cars, with 1628 cattle, 194 calves, 2085 hogs and 2860 sheep and lambs.

Gunns, Ltd., bought 150 cattle: Butchers, $9 to $10.50; cows, $7.50 to $8.65; bulls, $7.25 to $8.50.

Swift Canadian Co. bought 600 cattle: Butchers, $3.50 to $11; cows, $5.25 to $9; bulls, $6 to $8.

A. W. Talbot (for Wm. Davies, Ltd.), bought 250 cattle: Good butchers, $9.40 to $10.15; medium butchers, $7.50 to $8.25; common butchers, $6.25 to $7.50; bulls. $6.50 to $7.25; cows, $8.50 to $8.75; canners, $5.25 to $5.50.

The trade in small meats was quieter, owing to lighter receipts, but the tone of the market was very firm. Sheep sold at from $8 to $5.50 per cwt.

The trade in calves was fair, with sales of choice milk-fed stock at $13.50 to $14.50, and the lower grades from that down to $7 per cwt. A stronger feeling developed in the market for hogs, and prices scored another advance of 25c per cwt.

The state of the s Ottawa, Oct. 10.—The military department issues the following article by Rowland Hill on operations of Canadian troops other than the Canadian troops other than the Canadian corps. These include railway construction and labor battalions.

"To many at home Canada's association with Ypres is but a memory, yet along the fringes of the great battle which is now progressing so favorably there are still Canadian troops doing work which has gained them special commendation. You can find them in places historic in Canafidan minds—Langemarck, St. Julien. Weletje—starting new lines for the guns, repairing the old railways, building new dugouts for imperial and Australian troops, and making roads. Sometimes little parties go out and help the ambulance men on their railways, always overworked in a great battle.

FULL-FLEDGED MAN.

Little Sidney had reached the mature age of three and was about to discard petticoats for the more manly raiment of knickerbockers. The mo-ther nad determined to make the occasion a memorable one. The breakfast table was laden with good things when the newly breeched ta-fant was led into the dining-room. "Ah!" exclaimed the proud mother "new you are a little man!" Sidney was in ecstasies. Displaying his garments to their full advantage he edged close to his mother and whispered, "Can I call pa Bill now?"
