Will No Doubt Be Interested in This "All Weather" Top at the Moderate Price of $95.00.

A top that will make winter driving cosy and comfortable and improve the appearance of the car wonderfully.

For the "all-weather top" has been made by a long-established top manufacturer, who builds strongly and of the most durable materials, yet along symmetrical lines.

The top is not heavy, weighing little more than the ordinary Ford touring top.

It fits solidly on the body, metal stripping being used to make snug joint, through which the slightest draught is unlikely to penetrate.

It is ribbed across and lengthwise with ash. The outer covering is of rubberized cloth. Interior is lined with cotton whipcord in an olive shade.

Has patent flexible sliding side windows that may be slid into the roof.

These give any amount of ventilation, and permit full freedom for traffic signalling.

Sides and end have heavy large glass windows, which afford plenty of light.

In fine weather the "all-weather top" can be converted into an open one by removing windows and side posts.

Make it a point to see this top on the Fifth Floor, installed on a Ford—and, remember, the price, $95.00, is a most moderate one.

STANDARD RELIANCE PROBE REOPENED

Purchase of Royal Bank Building Investigated by Court.

BRITISH LAND COMPANY

Questioned by counsel, R. H. Green, a former director of the Standard Loan Company, who was the first witness to appear in the stand at the resumption yesterday afternoon of the Standard Reliance probe at Osgoode Hall, said he remembered the transaction between the Standard Reliance and the British Land Company, in connection with the purchase of the Royal Bank building.

"That is your recollection of the matter first coming up before the directors of the Standard Reliance Company?" "I think it was at the meeting on May 8, 1913."

"You don't remember whether that was a meeting of directors, or merely of the executive?" "I don't remember."

"How did the matter come up that day, May 8?" "Mr. Johnston, who was in the chair, brought the matter up."

"What did he say about the purchase?" "He said it would be a splendid purchase, remarked on the fitness of the building itself, and said it was well worth $500,000."

"Did you know at that time anything about the membership of the British Land Company?" "No, I knew Mr. Dinick belonged to it, but did not know Mr. Waddington, or Johnston, or Firstbrook, belonged to it."

"Did none of them mention that they were connected with the British Land Company?" "No, they did not."

"Did you look at the agreement yourself?" "No."

"Signed Without Reading."

"Who read it?" "The chairman."

"Did you know what was in it?" "Mr. Johnston explained what was in it. I understood it was the Dovercourt Land Company which was purchasing the bank. I signed the agreement."

"How was it that you signed the agreement without knowing more about the circumstances of the purchase?" "I suppose it was because Mr. Johnston and Mr. Waddington strongly advised it. They usually dominated the 'directors' meetings."

"You say you had heard about the possible purchase of the Royal Bank before this?" "I had heard it mentioned several times before the meeting by Mr. Waddington, who maintained that the building would be a good site for our office."

"You knew there was a profit of $40,000 made by the British Land Company by the deal?" "Yes. But I didn't know it at the time."

"Would you have approved the purchase had you known?" "No, I would not."

"Did you know that these four men had a drawing account at the Standard Reliance?" "I think all the directors were aware of that."

Col. Dinick Cross-Examined.

When the probe opened in the morning Col. W. S. Dinick was again on the stand. The investigation of the Grand Trunk Railway transaction was continued. An account of the Standard Loan payment of $10,000 was asked for by Geo. H. Kilmer, K. C., counsel for the liquidator.

Col. Dinick said that as far as he could remember $1,000 went to A. Walters, $1,000 went to Alf. Hall, $3,000 to Chas. Pearson, $3,000 to E. T. Pearson and $2,000 to A. E. Kent.

On pressing for an explanation counsel brought out the fact that in reality $10,200 had been paid to E. T. Pearson for his services in giving the valuation on the property of the Ontario Industrial, which was worth $294,740. This he considered too high a commission for the services rendered.

Col. Dinick said the valuation had proved a valuable one for the Standard Reliance.

In reply to counsel's question Col. Dinick admitted that by an agreement between the Standard Loan and Industrial Loan, E. T. Pearson and A. M. Campbell were appointed valuers with power to add a third.

Later the transactions in connection with the British Land Company were dealt with. Col. Dinick said that he was one of the organizers and that the company had been formed in July, 1912. "The company was incorporated by Mr. Smoko, with capital of $400,000."

"You obtained a charter with only five shareholders to conduct a business in land?" asked Mr. Kilmer. "Yes."

"Had you any negotiation prior to 1912 for the Royal Bank building?" "No."

Company Dormant.

"To what use did you put this company?" "It was lying dormant, and it was thought by E. F. B. Johnston, Gideon Grant, John Firstbrook and myself that it could be used to take over the Strathgowan property, and the Royal Bank building property."

"When was the change made in directors and shareholders?" "October, 1912."

"And the shares were transferred?" "R. M. Walton to John Firstbrook, October 24, 1912; G. M. Wright to Gideon Grant; Medhurst to E. F. B. Johnston, and Miss Fairbairn to Herbert Waddington."

"This deal was originally on your own behalf?" "Yes. When I returned from England, Garland wanted the deal completed. The price had been agreed upon, but terms were not quite complete."

"You had to pay cash down? Where were you to get the $180,000?" "We were going to get it from the Royal Bank."

"Is that why you went to Mr. John-

LEADING MEDICO DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Dr. H. J. Hamilton, Ex-President of Academy of Medicine, Dies in Hospital.

Whole-hearted exertions in combating the "flu" epidemic contributed to the death at 3.30 a.m. yesterday of Dr. Herbert J. Hamilton, ex-president of the Academy of Medicine, who succumbed to pneumonia and heart trouble at Wellesley Hospital.

He had been sick for some three weeks, but had carried on with his duties until last Sunday, when he collapsed in the house of one of his patients, whom he was treating for the "flu."

Dr. Hamilton was a widower and is survived by a sister, residing in Guelph, and an aunt, Mrs. Alexander, of Toronto. He was secretary of the Academy of Medicine and senator of the University of Toronto.

The late Dr. Herbert J. Hamilton was a man of great personal popularity, both with his patients and with his fellow practitioners. Born about 55 years ago at Brampton, he was the son of Richard Hamilton, a well-known farmer and local politician. His mother was a sister of the late Dr. J. E. Graham of this city.

A Toronto Graduate.

He was educated at Brampton High School and Toronto University, graduating from the old Toronto School of Medicine in 1885.

He came to Toronto in 1894 and associated himself with Dr. W. P. Cavan. His wife, who was a daughter of the late John Aikens of Brampton, died about three years ago.

Dr. E. E. King, the president of the Toronto Academy of Medicine, says of him:

"When he was president of the academy he was both loved and honored by all its associates and his death is a great loss to that institution. He was devoted to and intense in his work and had a very large practice. Nothing was too much trouble to him."

The late Dr. Hamilton was physician to the St. Andrew's Hospital and had been practising in the city of Toronto for over thirty-five years. He is survived by a brother and sister in Manitoba, a sister near Brampton and another in Guelph.

JUDGES ARE ILL

Chief Justice Sir Glenholme Falconbridge is reported ill with pneumonia, and it is expected that it will be some time before he will be able to resume his work.

TOMORROW'S GRAND CONCERT.

The public of Toronto may anticipate with every confidence a splendid and real musical treat in the concert tomorrow night by the Elgar Choir of Hamilton, and the Russian symphony orchestra of New York. The sale of seats is now open at Massey Hall.

THINK VERDICT MISCARRIAGE.

The members of George Coppen's family are unanimous in the opinion that a wicked injustice has been done him by his conviction on the murder charge.

Lady Drummond of Red Cross Leaves for Switzerland Congress

Lady Drummond of Montreal, who was in Toronto for the meetings of the Red Cross Society, left last night and will start immediately for Switzerland, where she will attend the first meeting of the League of the Red Cross, at which five nations will be represented—Great Britain, Japan, Italy, France and the United States.

Danforth Ratepayers' Executive Against High Raise to Teachers

Danforth Ratepayers' Association executive held a meeting yesterday in the house of the president, Robert Luxton, at which the members placed themselves on record as against the "extraordinary" raise in teachers' salaries, but were in favor of a proportionate scale of 5 per cent. for salaries over $2,000, 10 per cent. on $1,500-$2,000, 15 per cent. on all below $1,500.

THROWN FROM BICYCLE.

John Lancaster, 179 Woolfrey avenue, was cut about the eye last night when he was thrown from his bicycle by a motor car on Sherbourne street. Lancaster and his son were riding bicycles home from work when the automobile collided with both of them, throwing them from the bicycles. The father was taken to St. Michael's Hospital, but the son was able to go home.

FIGHT IN HALTON DOUBTFUL ISSUE

Defeated Candidates Can Express No Opinion on Outcome.

Udney Richardson, ex-M.L.A. for East Wellington, which he lost in a three-cornered fight to A. E. Hallyer, who has now resigned in favor of Attorney-General Raney, was in Toronto yesterday, but did not drop in to talk politics. Mr. Richardson called as a matter of course upon H. H. Dewar, Liberal leader, but had no opinions to express as to the prospect of opposition being offered the attorney-general. Personally, Mr. Richardson has no desire to test the solidarity of the U.F.O. vote.

Col. Pritchard, the defeated Conservative candidate in the general election, who is a prominent stock-breeder and farmer of Fergus, does not support the U.F.O. political movement, but offers for the moment no opinion as to prospects of defeating the government candidate so soon after the general election.

In Halton, Ed. J. Stephenson, whose political program was summarized in 'The World' a few days ago, is preparing to give Premier Drury a run for the seat, and is having nomination papers signed. Mr. Stephenson is a simple pure independent, opposed to Premier Drury and Attorney-General Raney, on the ground that they are back-sliding from the U.F.O. policy and substituting for it the platform of the referendum committee and Social Reform League.

S. Andrew's Patients Enjoy Orange Lodge Entertainment

The County Orange Lodge, represented by County Master W. H. Elliot, and working in conjunction with Mr. Galley, of the Y.M.C.A., provided an entertainment for the patients of the St. Andrew's Hospital last night, at which an enjoyable evening was spent by all.

An excellent program was provided, including some of the best-known local talent, and afterwards cigars and chocolates were passed around among the boys. A. A. Gray, assistant deputy grand master, and Isaac Smith, district master, assisted in the arrangement of the program.
